TEN THOUSAND CASUALTIES ON EACH SIDE IN TWO DAYS

Battle of Liao-Yang Will Rank as One of the Great Sanguinary Battles of History—Japanese Are Fighting Like Madmen—Most Critical Stage Has Not Been Reached and Neither Side Has Gained Any Decided Advantage.

…ao, Sept. 1.—11 a. m.—The battle of Liao-yang is progressing without appreciable result. Official Japanese dispatches sent yesterday say that neither contestant has realized any visible result.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 1.—2 a. m.—With the knowledge that the Russian and Japanese armies about Liao-yang are locked in a death struggle the tension in St. Petersburg tonight is strained to the utmost. It is believed here that the fight cannot stop short of the crushing defeat of one side or the other.

All reports so far are favorable to the Russians though the suspension of all news for many hours has been exceedingly trying and has given rise to several rumors somewhat tempering the earlier enthusiasm.

Communication Not Cut.

It is stated officially, however, that the report that the railway and telegraph have been cut north of Liao-yang is untrue. A member of the general staff said to the Associated Press at midnight:

"I can assure you that up to this hour communication with Liao-yang has not been interrupted. General Kuropatkin has taken particular precautions against any attempt to cut the railway. While it is always possible that a small raiding party might slip through the Russian patrols or that hired Chinese bandits might cut the telegraph, it is a fair supposition, in view of all the facts that this has not been done."

Critical Stage Not Reached.

The highest military authorities here consider that the most critical stage of the battle has not yet been reached and they believe that the fight may continue for some time before either side acknowledges defeat. This is an important consideration by the light of which to interpret any immediate news.

It is thought here that in view of the numbers engaged, the desperateness of the assaults and the length of the line (about seven miles) the losses in the two days' fighting cannot fall short of 10,000 on each side. Both sides are straining every nerve, realizing that the fortunes of war for a whole year are in the scale, and neither side is in the mood or the position to spare men in the effort to achieve a final victory.

One of the Most Sanguinary.

The battle of Liao-yang will probably rank as one of the great sanguinary battles of history. It is estimated by the general staff that the Japanese armies engaged number 17 divisions of 15,000 men each, or allowing for inefficients, about 240,000 men. Each division has 36 guns and there are two independent artillery brigades of 100 guns each, making a total of about 800 guns. The estimates of Russian correspondents range from 600 to 1,000 guns per side.

In the preliminary fighting of Monday the Russians captured 200 prisoners, who have arrived at Harbin and report [illegible] that they captured over 40 Japanese guns yesterday. General Kuropatkin's effective forces are variously estimated at from 170,000 to 200,000 men.

The Japanese on Wednesday morning attacked three sides of the Russian position. One of the Associated Press correspondents also mentions a Japanese movement to the northeast of Liao-yang, showing that the Japanese were undoubtedly trying to work around Kuropatkin's rear.

Endurance of the Men.

One of the surprising phases of the situation is the endurance of the men. They have been engaged desperately for two days after more or less severe fighting under unfavorable conditions every day since August 24. It would seem that human endurance could not persist much longer without respite of some sort.

The Japanese are using balloons to locate the Russian guns and trenches. One of the Russian correspondents of the Associated Press points out that the Japanese sent up a balloon shortly after daylight to the southeast of Liao-yang. The Japanese are reported to be using mortars to drop shells into the Russian positions. These probably are the high angle Howitzers which were reported in action earlier in the week.

It is plain, however, that the Japanese are no longer enjoying the superiority in artillery, which stood them in such good stead in the earlier months of the war. It was then hill fighting and the Japanese mountain batteries, in which arms the Russians were deficient, told with deadly effect. Now the contest is in a comparatively open country where both the Russian field guns and the Russian cavalry can come into more effective use.

JAPANESE CAPTURE IMPORTANT PAPERS

RUSSIAN OFFICERS ON A JUNK TRYING TO REACH PORT ARTHUR INTERCEPTED BY A JAPANESE TORPEDO BOAT.

Che-foo, Aug. 31.—10 p. m.—It is reported here upon good authority that the Japanese have captured some Russian officers bound to Port Arthur with important papers. These officers left Mukden and attempted to get into Port Arthur by junk. For some time past a Japanese torpedo boat has been at sea watching for this junk, and according to the report, she overtook it at one o'clock this morning and took the officers, the papers and the junk into Port Dalny.

JAPANESE LOSSES SAID TO EXCEED THOSE OF RUSSIANS

Liao-yang, Aug. 31.—The second day's battle commenced at dawn. The Russians made repeated bayonet advances on the road directly south of Liao-yang, where the Japanese approached from San Quaiship and Tao, shelling the positions in the Russian lines until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the engagement, which was general throughout the south and southeast, narrowed to the main line.

The Japanese advance on the south, [illegible] by way of the Feng-wang-cheng road. Immediately in front of Chiaofantun the Japanese stubbornly attempted to occupy a round-topped hill which was literally shaved by the Russian shells, making repeated attempts the entire time where apparently it was impossible for anything to live. The cannonading continued from this point to the vicinity of Wangpaotai until this evening without apparent advantage to either side. The Japanese dropped shells within two or three miles of the railroad station and in the plain of Wentshu mountain, which is the most important eminence around Liao-yang, but the Japanese abandoned aggression there on account of the resistance they met. There was cannon fire last night, and this is expected nightly. The varied casualties here include one Russian war correspondent wounded and also 25 Chinese women from Chiaofantun, whom Dr. Westwater, the distinguished millionaire, is caring for in the Chinese Red Cross refuge. The day's developments show that the Russians are prepared for all emergencies. Slow rain began to fall at noon, gradually transferring the plain into a wilderness through which the wounded in carts and walking are tonight making their way to the hospitals. Considering the scale of the day's operations, the number of Russian wounded is apparently small, while the Japanese losses are believed to be great. Chinese graves with trees are being leveled about Liao-yang in order not to interfere with the defense. Developments are expected west and northeast.

JAPS FIGHT LIKE MADMEN

RUSSIAN WAR CORRESPONDENT SENDS GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF TUESDAY'S BATTLE AT LIAO-YANG.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 31.—9:35 p. m.—Some interesting details of yesterday's battle are furnished by Russian correspondents, from which it appears that two regiments of Japanese at daybreak attempted to capture the batteries of the Sixth artillery brigade, located on the extreme left flank of the Russian army. The attempt was only discovered in the nick of time.

Some of the Russian troops fought continuously for 36 hours.

The concussion and the roar of the guns shook windows at Liao-yang, though the artillery was six to eight miles away.

Nemirovich Danchenko, the famous Russian war correspondent, describing the battle, says:

"The enemy, drunk with their former successes, attacked from three sides like madmen. When they were hurled back, fresh troops, of which they seemed to have an inexhaustible supply, were sent forward."

M. Danchenko says the combatants had about 600 guns on each side, and adds:

"It was our first victory. The enemy was beaten back everywhere, many of his batteries were destroyed and in some cases his infantry was put to rout."

RUSSIANS DEFEATED AT TSEGOW VILLAGE

ACCOUNTS OF BATTLE FOUGHT LAST THURSDAY, IN WHICH JAPANESE LOST HEAVILY IN BAYONET ATTACK.

Harbin, Aug. 30.—Delayed—A Russian correspondent of the Associated Press supplies the following:

Fighting with the extreme left-flank of General Herschelmann's corps commenced at 10 o'clock on the night of August 25 with an attack on our position at the village of Tsegow. The Japanese attack was persistent through the night and by 4 o'clock the next morning it involved the whole line. They drove a hard attack against General Herschelmann's right flank while attempting to turn his left.

The Tamboff regiment desperately protected the left flank until after daylight and just as it was wavering from the repeated shocks of the Japanese assault, our reinforcements came up and the whole line, including the weary defenders, charged, shouting.

The Japanese stood stubbornly to the bayonet attack, but finally were borne back in the whirl of the hand to hand fight, leaving heaps of dead behind them.

Later a false report that the Japanese had carried the position brought up another battalion of reserves at double quick. The battalion caught a Japanese infantry column with its flanks exposed and fired, killing many and forcing the others to retire.

Our batteries opened with the daylight forcing the Japanese from several positions in the hills. They lost hundreds by our shrapnel fire.

We held the position all day long, but at 6 o'clock in the evening retired in accordance with orders.

AROUSED BY FIRE

Blaze in Business Section Causes Alarm Among Roomers Who Flee From the Building.

Suddenly aroused from deep slumber by a cry of "fire" from Police Officer Chap Fisher, as he ran down the hallway in the rooming house at the corner of Huerfano and Tejon streets, some odd tenants jumped from their beds and scrambled for articles of clothing, while choking from the dense smoke that penetrated the building. They ran down into the street, thoroughly terrified. Some of them were clad only in their night clothes.

The fire was in a fruit store at 112 East Huerfano street, owned by William Jones.

The central department responded quickly but it required three-quarters of an hour to subdue the flames.

The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

The lodging apartments, kept by Mrs. Leeper, were damaged by smoke but were not otherwise damaged.

ANNIHILATION OF GUN CREW

IN THE RUSSIAN FIRST ARTILLERY BRIGADE EVERY OFFICER WAS EITHER KILLED OR WOUNDED.

Liao-yang, Aug. 31.—A Russian correspondent says:

"The Japanese all day yesterday carried on the fight with an energy approaching desperation, but the Russians were buoyed up in the belief that a point had been reached where there would be no more retreating and the Japanese attacks were met with shouts and hurrahs from the trenches and the rifle pits.

"Five times the Japanese hurled themselves against our lines, but each time they were repulsed at the point of the bayonet.

"There were about 1,000 guns in action on each side but we have more guns emplaced than have the Japanese.

"The losses cannot yet be computed, but they have been great everywhere, especially among the artillerymen. For instance, in the First artillery brigade every officer was either killed or wounded and some of the guns were silenced absolutely, owing to the death of all the gun [illegible]

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL

CHARGE AGAINST A. E. IRELAND, AN AMERICAN FEDERATION OFFICIAL—ACCUSED OF ATTACK ON NON-UNION MEN.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 31.—A. E. Ireland, an American Federation of Labor official, who is helping conduct the Santa Fe machinists strike, was arrested here tonight by Sheriff Lightfoot, of Fort Madison, Iowa. Ireland is wanted on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

On the night of July 16 he is said to have struck Wesley Johnston, a non-union Santa Fe workman, with a missile concealed in a handkerchief, producing a dangerous wound.

Sheriff Lightfoot arrived in the city today with a requisition for Ireland from Governor Cummings of Iowa. This was honored by Governor Bailey before the arrest was made. Ireland left for Fort Madison tonight in charge of an officer. Ireland has a similar charge against him in Kansas City.

SWITCHMEN WILL NOT GO ON STRIKE

DONNELLY'S EFFORT TO SPREAD STRIKE AGAINST PACKERS WAS ONLY PARTLY SUCCESSFUL—APPEAL TO GOMPERS.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The efforts of President Donnelly of the Butchers union to spread the strike against the packers [illegible] way connected with the packing house industry was only partially successful today. The first step was in calling out the men employed by the independent packers and the stock handlers that [illegible] against whom the original strike was made. The total number of men who quit work today in response to the appeals of President Donnelly was about 2,000.

It was also announced by President Donnelly that he had made arrangements for a strike of the switchmen on the railroads doing business in the stockyards and that in a short time the packers would find it impossible to ship out their products. The switchmen have refused to strike, however.

A telegram was sent today by officials of the Chicago Federation of Labor to President Samuel Gompers, asking him to call a meeting to be held in Chicago of the executive committee of their organization for the purpose of devising means of assisting the striking butchers.

UNABLE TO GET TO PORT ARTHUR

EFFECTIVENESS OF THE JAPANESE BLOCKADE DEMONSTRATED BY MAJOR SEAMAN OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY.

Chee-foo, Aug. 31.—6 p. m.—Major L. L. Seaman, U. S. A., returned to Chee-foo today after an adventuresome attempt to enter Port Arthur. Leaving Chee-foo August 25, Major Seaman proceeded to Taktintau, one of the Miaotu islands. Unable to obtain a junk here, he secured a lifeboat belonging to a steamer recently wrecked and with four coolies as oarsmen and the third mate of the wrecked steamer, he started for Port Arthur. He carried a makeshift American flag with 22 stripes. A head wind and a strong tide compelled Major Seaman to return to his starting place at nightfall. He slept on the beach. On August 28 he secured a small junk and with a favorable wind, sped toward Port Arthur. He passed a Japanese cruiser unnoticed and saw four battleships in the vicinity of the harbor's mouth. His junk drifted too close to shore and it was fired upon by Japanese riflemen.

Discovering the impossibility of landing in the face of shore guards and warships, Major Seaman reluctantly returned.

PRINCESS OF COBURG ESCAPES SURVEILLANCE

Berlin, Aug. 31.—Princess Louise of Coburg, daughter of the king of the Belgians, whose relations with Keglevich Mattaisch, the former lieutenant of the Austrian army, caused a great scandal in European royal circles seven years ago and who has since been kept under the closest restraint has vanished from Badelster, where she had been taking the cure. It is presumed that the princess is in the company of Mattaisch and is seeking to gain an asylum, where she will be safe from recapture.

RUSSIANS MUST TAKE THE OFFENSIVE

Berlin, Aug. 31.—German military critics point out that tactics of mere defensive resistance will be disastrous to General Kuropatkin at Liao-yang as the fire of the Japanese batteries is certain to shatter the Russian defenses. General Kuropatkin should, according to the experts, be able to strike a powerful blow at some portion of the Japanese lines, while if the strong Russian cavalry cannot prevent the outflanking of the Russian forces "it must be regarded as vain."

NINE KILLED IN CANADA

SPECIAL EXCURSION TRAIN FROM MONTREAL RAN INTO PASSENGER TRAIN FROM VERMONT—SCORE INJURED.

Montreal, Aug. 31.—Nine persons were killed and 23 others injured in a head-on collision on the Grand Trunk railway near Richmond, Quebec, today. The trains involved were a special excursion from Montreal, bound for [illegible] and passenger train No. 5, running between Island Pond, Vermont and Montreal. The collision it is claimed was due to neglect of orders on the part of the train crew of the excursion train which left Richmond without awaiting the arrival of the passenger train.

DENVER COMPANY OUT OF HANDS OF RECEIVER

Pueblo, Aug. 31.—All demands against the Denver Gas & Light company have been met as well as the costs of court fees and receivership. Judge Bailey this afternoon issued an order turning the property back to its original owners at 12 o'clock tonight.

The Denver company has been in the hands of a receiver for the past two and a half years at the request of creditors, whose accounts amounted to $151,000.

DEATH OF DR. HERRAN; FORMER COLOMBIAN MINISTER

New York, Aug. 31.—Dr. Thomas Herran, who represented Colombia at Washington for several years, up to the time of the Panama incident, died today at Liberty, N. Y., after a long illness.

KNOTS OF LAW UNRAVELED BY BRAINY MEN OF BENCH AND BAR

Legal Talent of State Gathered Here in 7th. Session.

16 NEW MEMBERS

Banquet Tonight Will Bring Brilliant Assemblage to a Splendid Close.

JUSTICE RUFUS W. PECKHAM
Of the United States Supreme Court a Distinguished Guest of Colorado Bar Association.

The Colorado Bar association composed of the most talented men of the legal profession of the state, began its seventh annual meeting in Colorado Springs yesterday afternoon.

There were nearly 40 members of the association from all over the state in attendance when President Joel F. Vaile of Denver, called the meeting to order in the sun parlor at the Antlers hotel, shortly after 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The reading of the minutes of the last session was the first order of business and Secretary Lucius W. Hoyt of Denver, disposed of this quickly after which Mr. Vaile gave his annual address. Mr. Vaile discussed the recent supreme court decision in the Moyer case as probably the most important legal question that has come up in Colorado during the year now closing.

New Members Added.

At the conclusion of this address, Secretary Hoyt read the list of candidates for membership and a vote by ballot was taken resulting in the election of the following:

Alva B. Adams of Pueblo; L. W. Allen of Telluride; Henry Cohen of Denver; Luther M. Goddard of Denver; John A. Gordon of Denver; Frank T. Johnson of Denver; J. T. McCorkle of Pueblo; Clarence J. Morley of Denver; James H. Pershing of Denver; J. W. Preston of Pueblo; Karl Schuyler of Colorado Springs; J. W. Sheafor of Colorado Springs; Guy Le R. Stevick of Denver; Charles A. Stokes of Denver; Fred W. Stow of Ft. Collins; William H. Wadley of Denver.

Following this came the report of the treasurer, Mr. Hoyt. His report showed the finances to be in better condition than they were a year ago.

The addresses of Mr. Ewing and Mr. Knaebel followed and just before adjournment of the afternoon session, the president appointed the following nomination committee to report this morning: Ralph Talbot, Denver; Charles E. Gast, Pueblo, and H. G. Lunt, Colorado Springs.

Those in Attendance.

Those attending the association meeting as members yesterday were:

Judge Kurnal R. Babbitt, Colorado Springs.
Judge George C. Bailey, Fort Collins.
Congressman Robert W. Bonynge, Denver.
Congressman Franklin E. Brooks, Colorado Springs.
Justice John Campbell, of the supreme court.
N. M. Campbell, Colorado Springs.
Edward P. Costigan, Denver.
Judge S. S. Downer, Boulder.
John A. Ewing, Leadville.
W. W. Field, Denver.
Charles E. Gast, Pueblo.
Judge J. T. Gunnell, Colorado Springs.
Judge Julius C. Gunter, Colorado court of appeals.
Harry A. Haynes, Greeley.
Lucius W. Hoyt, Denver.
Joseph F. Jaffa, Denver.
[illegible] A. Kilgore, La Junta.
Ernest Knaebel, Denver.
Horace G. Lunt, Colorado Springs.
Harry McAllister, Jr., Colorado Springs.
Ex-Senator James W. McCreary, Greeley.

MANIAC TEARS HER CLOTHING

Drusilla Taylor Becomes Very Violent.

HURRY CALL FOR POLICE

COLORED GIRL, WHO IMAGINES SHE IS CAUSING RIOT, HAD TO BE REMOVED FROM HOSPITAL LAST NIGHT.

Drusilla Taylor, the colored woman who first gave her name as Eliza Taylor when taken into custody because of unsound mind, became violent at St. Francis hospital late last night and a hurry-up message was sent for the police and County Physician Richardson to go out and take care of her.

The woman imagines that she has been around her room and tore her clothing. When the doctor and the officers arrived on the scene at midnight, she was quieter and they had no trouble taking her to the patrol wagon and in it to the county jail, where she was locked in the padded cell.

She woman imagines that she has been the cause of a riot somewhere. Dr. Richardson will this morning file an information in the county court charging the woman with insanity and she will probably be tried today.

PLUCKY WOMAN IN A RUNAWAY

WAS THROWN FROM RIG AND DRAGGED, BUT INSISTED ON DRIVING HORSE BACK TO RANCH.

Mrs. Albin, who lives on a ranch eight miles north of town, was the victim of a peculiar accident which came near proving serious, yesterday morning. As she was attempting to get into her buggy in front of Dr. Allen's office, the horse started. She reached for the reins, but secured only one. She was thrown to the ground, and though the horse kept going, held fast to the reins. Dragging her on the ground, the horse made two complete circles in the street, and finally got loose. It started west on Kiowa street, but was stopped by Engineer Black of the Hagerman building.

Mrs. Albin was badly shaken up and bruised, though the wonder is that she was not thrown against the hard stone curbing and seriously injured. She drove the horse home. The horse and buggy were not damaged.

E. M. JOHNSON RELEASED UNDER $20,000 BONDS

Denver, Aug. 31.—E. M. Johnson, president of the defunct Fidelity Savings association, who was indicted by the grand jury yesterday on the charges of embezzlement and grand larceny, was released from the county jail today in bonds of $20,000. Two others were indicted with Johnson, namely, Secretary John L. Jones and former Secretary Gideon W. Campbell. Each is held in bonds of $5,000. The charges against the three men are embezzlement, grand larceny, making false entries and rendering false reports of the [illegible] association.

STRUCK HER WITH A CHAIR

Drunken Coal Miner Attacks Household.

HE TRIED TO STAB A MAN

WOMAN WITH BABE IN ARMS RUSHES TO DEFENSE OF HUSBAND AND RECEIVES UGLY BLOW ON THE HEAD.

A German named Sandron, in a drunken frenzy broke into the home of William Wheeler, at the Danville coal mines north of town, and started a quarrel with him, but Mrs. Wheeler interfered and the German, not regarding the fact that she carried a baby in her arms, struck her over the head with a chair, inflicting a wound that is painful, but not serious.

The trouble arose over the fact that one of Sandron's children slapped the Wheeler baby yesterday afternoon, and Wheeler reprimanded the child for it. Sandron, it is said, came down town, then went over to Manitou and returned to the coal mines about 10 o'clock last night considerably under the influence of liquor. He immediately entered the Wheeler home. Sandron was evidently frightened at what he had done and made his escape. Wheeler walked to the Colorado Springs Electric Co's. plant and had a message sent in to the sheriff and to Dr. E. L. McKinnie.

Undersheriff Dayton hurried to the scene as soon as he was notified, but had not returned to this city at midnight.

Undersheriff Dayton [illegible] scene and returned early this morning with two men against whom he lodged charges of disturbance.

Undersheriff Dayton and Deputy Sheriff Nelson went out in an automobile and found Sandron standing everybody off with a shotgun and the other fellow shooting a pistol off in the air. The officers took both and brought them back, using the auto as a patrol wagon. They are now lodged in the county jail.

BELGIANS FEAR GERMAN INVASION

CONGO FREE STATE CONSTRUCTING CONCEALED FORTS OF LARGE SIZE ON WEST COAST OF LAKE TANGANYIKA

Cape Town, Mc., Aug. 31.—Official information from British Central Africa says that the Congo Free State is reconstructing concealed forts of considerable magnitude on the west coast of Lake Tanganyika and that one of these forts which is equipped with 20 guns is within two hours of the German frontier. It is believed that the Belgians apprehend a German invasion. A number of natives who are German subjects have been expelled from the Congo Free State. It is understood that negotiations regarding the matter are now proceeding between Berlin and Brussels.

The west shore of Lake Tanganyika belongs to the Congo Free State the south shore to British Central Africa and the east shore to German Southeast Africa. The area of the lake is [estima]ted at 14,000 square miles.

JOSEPHINES LOST TWICE

Were Short but One Run in Each Game.

GRAHAM'S GREAT STOP

COLE, YOUNGER AND [illegible] WILL OCCUPY BOXES AT TODAY'S DOUBLE-HEADER—LAST EXCEPT MONDAY'S GAME.

By Ellsworth Overholt.

Mr. Harry Maupin, twirler, dropped by the St. Joe management and picked up by the Millionaires before he had a chance to touch terra firma, had the supreme satisfaction of bumping his former pals in the first round yesterday, while Mr. Villeman followed in his wake and won from the Josies in the second bout. Fine business! Scores, 5 to 4 and 4 to 3.

Barring the arrival of the pay car, there is nothing more satisfactory to the average ball player than to get back at the team that let him out. Mr. Maupin more than squared things yesterday, and not only did he have the advantage over Hodson in the pitching line, but counted two of the runs in the opening inning on his long double to right. Barring the first and ninth innings, when he was touched up for three and four hits respectively, he had things his own way. Villeman and Diehl pitched each other to a stand-off in the second, each letting his opponents down with five hits.

Nothing to Jar One.

Nothing of a jarring nature, except possibly the heavy batting, broke loose in the front part of the afternoon. Belden walked and McBride went out at first. Kahl batted down Hartman's liner with his meat hand and by so doing stopped a budding two-bagger. Lezotte singled and on McConnell's double Belden and Hartman scored. Lezotte scored on a fielder's choice. With three runs as a start things looked rosy for the visitors, but the color of the look turned when the Millionaires hammered in six in their half of the opener. Four singles, two errors and Maupin's double did the business. Maupin tripled with two out in the third, but perished on the bag.

But in the ninth those Josies [illegible] the spectators. Mr. Garvin sounded the keynote of battle from his position on the coaching line by announcing to Mr. Belden: "This is a funny game, [illegible] can tell what will happen," and no sooner had he spoken than Mr. Belden smote the ball. McBride and Hartman followed suit and Lezotte leaned up against a double. Nill's bad throw to the plate let Hartman in and Lezotte also crossed the rubber. Four runs. [illegible] retired the side with the score tied. Beerwald scored the winning run in the ninth when Lezotte [illegible] Schelbeck's throw to first. A pass and Keefe's sacrifice put Berry on third. [illegible] passed, filling the bases, and four bad ones to Nill forced in the winning run.

Was It In or Out.

CUBS GREW TOO CARELESS

They Had the Game Won Up to Eighth Inning.

THEN SIOUX CITY TOOK IT

IT TOOK THEM TEN INNINGS BUT THEY MADE A SCORE IN EACH OF THE LAST THREE INNINGS.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Aug. 31.—Sioux City won from Denver in ten innings today by the score of 3 to 2. The visitors made a run in each of the last three innings, and up until the eighth the game was all Denver's. Then the Cubs grew careless and the Sioux started to work. Linderman, the Sioux star twirler, was the mainstay of the team and pitched a fine game. Lawler, who made two of the three runs was well assisted by errors by the locals. He scored first on an error, a single and White's error. In the ninth Meserley, who was the star batter, singled, and scored in the tenth by Hutchinson ... Lawler scored the winning run in the tenth coming in from third on a wild pitch by Hostetter.

... tion is trying to raise sufficient donations of provisions, as well as a little ready money, to secure the services of their preacher for another year.

The supply of hay, pumpkins, potatoes, coal and things has been fairly adequate, but the money thus far is still about nine minus. Learning that Kahl was a Millionaire, he has been asked to help bridge the contribution list, either by New York draft or a carload of Rocky Ford melons. Everything is quiet in the town where the letter came from as the mines are not working. 'Tis said, however, that the health of the populace is pretty good. all right. "Deacon" Kahl at a late hour last night had not decided whether he would send money or provisions, or both.

The management of the Colorado Springs ball team last night extended the ... to Cole Younger and party, who arrived in Colorado Springs yesterday from the Indian territory, and they will occupy boxes in the grandstand at today's double-header. Cole Younger takes great interest in the national game, and he is personally acquainted with many of the players on both the St. Joe and Colorado Springs teams. In speaking to Captain Ryan last evening he said: "Well, Cap, I've seen you hit many a ball, but they didn't go as fast as some that have hit me." The Younger party will remain in Colorado Springs for two or three weeks.

A Pitchers' Battle.

The second game in the double bill developed into a pitchers' battle, Villeman and Diehl each breaking even with but five hits each. In the third inning Graham made a great one-hand scoop of Leggitte's grounder back of second and retired the runner. He was given the glad-hand when he came in but absolutely refused to doff his cap. Peachy should cheer up.

Today will be the last baseball in Colorado Springs, excepting Monday's two games, as Saturday's and Sunday's contests with the Cubs have been transferred to Denver. Game today begins at 2:30. Yesterday's scores:

WORLD RECORD IS SMASHED

GREAT SUCCESS OF OLYMPIC GAMES AT ST. LOUIS—THREE OLYMPIC RECORDS ALSO WERE BROKEN

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—Today, the third of the 1904 Olympian, one world's record fell before the prowess of an American, three Olympic records were broken, the laurels went to two Americans and a Greek; and one Olympic and world's record was broken, but owing to an unfortunate accident the time will not be allowed in the latter as the official record. H. L. Hillman of the N. Y. A. C. ran the 400 meter hurdle in 53 2-5 seconds under the Olympic and world's record. Hillman was forced the entire distance by Frank Waller of the Milwaukee A. C., who finished second, and in the excitement of the race Hillman failed to clear the last hurdle clearly and the barrier fell to the ground, disqualifying his record but not affecting the result of the race.

The 200-meter run again brought out a field of record breakers. Archie Hahn of the Milwaukee A. C. won the final heat in the record time of 21 3-5 seconds. He fought the distance with W. J. Cartmell of Louisville and only won by inches.

The next heat resulted in the lowering of the Olympic record by three-fifths of a second by Hahn.

Perikles Kakousis of Athens, Greece, had everything his own way in lifting the barbell. He won the event by lifting a weight of 165 pounds.

Kakousis then went after the Olympic record, which is also regarded as the world's record. He first lifted 250 pounds, four pounds more than the record made by the Danish athlete, V. Jensen, at the Athens Olympic games in 1896.

Ralph W. Rose of the Chicago A. A. played havoc with the Olympic and world's record and came within two inches of the world's record. He tried ... before he succeeded in breaking the latter with a put of 48 feet, seven inches. The former record was 48 feet, 2½ inches made by R. Sheldon of the New York A. C., at Paris in the 1900 revival of the Olympic games, and the former world's record was 48 feet, two inches.

CAUGHNAWAGA WINS TWIN CITY

STAKES WORTH $13,000 TO THE WINNER—ARTFUL WINS $10,000 GREAT FILLY STAKES AT SHEEPSHEAD

New York, Aug. 31.—In a hard drive Caughnawaga at 3 to 1 won the Twin City handicap, worth $13,000 to the winner, at Sheepshead Bay today with Dainty second and Graziallo third. The mile and a quarter was run in the fast time of 2:05. McChesney, who won this stake last year defeating Hermis, was made favorite today on the strength of ... outrun, finishing next to last.

Artful, winner of the Futurity, added another victory to her list by winning the $10,000 Great Filly stakes. Artful and Rose of Dawn were coupled in the betting and held at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 15. Artful and Belle Strome, an added starter, ran close together to the stretch, where Artful drew away and won under wraps by half a length in the fast time of 1:11 3-5, which is one-fifth of a second faster than her time in the Futurity.

Sunrise on Peak.

A special sunrise excursion train was run up Pike's Peak this morning and it was largely attended from the visiting Knight Templars, who gladly availed themselves of the opportunity to make the grand trip by moonlight and behold the sunrise from the summit of Pike's Peak.

The Vincennes, Ind., commandery of 23 members, arrived yesterday morning in a special car, and spent the day sightseeing. Part went up the Peak and others took in the various drives. The commandery is in charge of Dr. W. M. Hindman, past grand eminent commander.

Cairo commandery, No. 13, from Illinois, came in on its special car yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Up Pike's Peak, through the Garden of the Gods and the Cave of the Winds, was the way they spent the afternoon. There were 35 in the party, which is in charge of Eminent Commander W. D. Lippitt.

From Nebraska.

Another car was occupied by 18 sir knights and their ladies from Beatrice, Neb., who are on their way to join the grand commandery from Nebraska at San Francisco. They arrived late yesterday afternoon in charge of Past Eminent Commander Noah Ryne. At the conclave the Nebraska commandery will act as the escort to the San Francisco grand commandery.

Washington, Ind., No. 33, sent a delegation [illegible] rived late yesterday afternoon, and are making the best of their few hours to see everything that can be seen. Eminent Commander Frank Evans is in charge.

There delegations will all leave on a special train this morning at 10:30 o'clock over the Rio Grande through the Royal Gorge, on to Salt Lake and then to San Francisco.

The Vermont Frisco club of 30 members has notified the Antlers hotel that it will be in today, and tomorrow the Oriental club from Cleveland, 100 strong, is scheduled to arrive at that hotel. The delegations expected to arrive today are from Milwaukee, Peoria, Kentucky, Kansas City, Mo., and St. Paul. The Alabama, the Massachusetts, the Minnesota and the Indianapolis commanderies are also on the way.

Henry T. Rogers, Denver.
Walter Scott, Colorado Springs.
Ralph Talbot, Denver.
Senator Ed. T. Taylor, Glenwood Springs.
Samuel D. Trimble, Pueblo.
Joel F. Valle, Denver.
S. Harrison White, Pueblo.
O. B. Willcox, Colorado Springs.

Guests of Honor.

The guests of honor are: Judge John F. Philips, of the United States federal court of Kansas City, Mo.; Prof. James H. Brewster, of the law department of the University of Michigan; Justice Rufus W. Peckham, of the United States supreme court; Judge W. F. Blackman, of Alexandra, La.

Many local, Cripple Creek and other visiting attorneys were present at the sessions.

Today's Program.

The association will reconvene this morning in the sun parlor of the Antlers, when the following program will be rendered:

10 a. m.—Report of committee on grievances.
Report of committee on law reform.
Report of committee on Legal Education.
Report of committee on legal biography.
Nomination of officers.
New Business—Selection of delegates to American Bar association; selection of delegates to Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists; selection of next meeting place.
11 a. m.—Address, "How Can the Progress of Civil Causes Be Expedited?"
—Horace G. Lunt, of Colorado Springs.
Address, "What Can Be Done to Stop Lynching?"
—Henry McAllister, Jr., of Colorado Springs.
Discussion of addresses.

This afternoon will be spent in a drive through the Garden of the Gods. Tonight the meeting will close with the annual dinner, which will be one of the most sumptuous ever served in the city. It will be given at the Antlers. During the dinner several addresses will be delivered, all of the guests of honor being expected to say a few words.

The evening session yesterday was devoted solely to the address by Judge Philips, of Kansas City, Mo., which was the annual address of the association.

Judge Phillips' Address.

"Gentlemen of the Colorado Bar Association: For nearly forty-eight years I have trodden 'the path over which shines the gladsome light of jurisprudence.' The time approaches rapidly when I must lay aside the robe, and say: My work is finished, trusting to that transmuting power, without which we are poor, give what you will; with it rich, take what you will away,—the conscious sense of having tried to perform, as best I could, my allotted duty to my profession and to mankind. I bear you this testimony tonight: that yours is a profession of incalculable [illegible] for good as well as honor. To me it has been an unfailing source of exalted pleasures. It has furnished entertainments which have not tired with monotony, or surfeited with repetition. It is a harvest field wherein all the rich grain is never gleaned. It is a garden wherein all the beautiful and rare flowers are never plucked—a vintage wherein all the good wine is never expressed. But that which has brought to me the sweetest fruitage is the touch with my professional brethren, whose bright intelligence and warm friendship have cheered and gladdened the long journey."

With the above message to the Colorado Bar association, Judge John F. Philips, the aged but stalwart jurist of the federal court of Kansas City, Mo., closed an address of inspiration and wisdom before the lawyers of Colorado at the Antlers hotel last night.

An Eloquent Jurist.

Judge Philips is an eloquent and brilliant orator, a natural orator, as well as a talented and able jurist. He flavors his remarks deliciously with the condiments of wit and anecdote and brings a laugh while impressing a deep thought which is not robbed of its force by its light clothing. On the other hand, he speaks at times with direct forcefulness, and seriousness that penetrates to the inner self.

His address last night was on "The Ideals of the American Lawyer." After a happy introduction by President Valle, Judge Philips gave his auditors a taste of his rich humor and then turned to the subject in hand. He said in part:

"If there be even a modicum of truth in the assertion that all the sciences are raked up from the ashes of the law, the profession of law should be regarded as essentially an intellectual pursuit, involving the noblest endowments of education and the highest attributes of morality. It should, therefore, offer no rewards for ignorance, no hospitality to the charlatan, and no refuge for dishonesty. And it should be pursued for the high honors it offers its votaries, rather than the mere [illegible] display of money getting.

The Measure of Money.

"It was because of this exalted conception of the ancient office of the advocate that the Grecian and civil codes of professional ethics demanded that he render [illegible] without pecuniary reward. Yet, it must be confessed that the opposite extreme, to which the profession is tending, is lowering the standard of professional ethics and glory."

The judge made a severe arraignment of those who rank a lawyer in proportion to the biggest fee he has ever received. He called them shysters and charlatans, [illegible] rous with the plague of witness training and jury fixing, as gross as ignorance made drunk, who in a single damage suit have often gotten, or "taken," a larger fee than was obtained by Cicero for defending old Milo, or by Daniel Webster in the Dartmouth college case, or by Evarts for defending President Johnson in the impeachment trial before the United States senate.

He dealt severely with the fee-getting lawyer, the lawyer who puts the money before honor and right. In this connection, he said:

On Professional Ethics.

"No self-respecting lawyer can promote or advocate a cause which he knows to be dishonest, one that is pregnant with harm to the morals of society and, therefore, dangerous to the commonwealth. The advocate may defend the man believed to be guilty with all the ingenuity and ability at his command, employing all lawful weapons in the armory of justice. But this professional duty will never admit that the advocate shall consent to, or connive at, false testimony or that he should accuse or destroy the innocent."

"Intellectual honesty" was the term he used to describe the most admirable and noblest character of the advocate.

Judge Philips said he would not be misunderstood as saying that any attorney should not urge the cause of a client against what he may conceive to be the better law of the case, for the law of the case, he said, is what the ultimate court may declare it to be.

HEARD OF GAZETTE IN MANY PLACES

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS MAN SAYS HE WAS COMPLIMENTED BY EASTERN PEOPLE ON LOCAL WRITE-UP OF HIS CITY.

Mr. Ernest Weil of Excelsior Springs, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Weil is secretary of the Excelsior Springs Bottling Works and is one of the most prominent business men of that section of Missouri.

He expressed himself as very greatly pleased with the full page feature story of Excelsior Springs that appeared in Sunday's Gazette a few weeks ago, and said that he had heard many compliments on it. Another thing that Mr. Weil has noticed is the circulation of the Gazette in the east. This was emphasized to him by the numerous compliments he has heard from people living in the east on the Excelsior Springs write-up.

"Everywhere I went, I heard about that write-up," said Mr. Weil, "and I have been in many cities enjoying my vacation."

INCREASING BUSINESS DEMANDS MORE ROOM

J. L. Harbaugh, the prominent harness and saddlery dealer of this city has found his business growing at such a rate that he has leased the store rooms adjoining his establishment. He will immediately move a part of his stock into the new quarters, and thus give enlarged room for his increasing business.

... FEVER OR CHRONIC CATARRH

A Chicago Journalist Suffered From This Disease. Cured By Peruna.

MR. L. M. BABCOCK, 1619 Addison Ave., CHICAGO

A Well Known Journalist Owes His Recovery Entirely to Peruna.

Mr. L. M. Babcock, 1619 Addison Ave., Chicago, Ill., Secretary Chicago Journalists Association, writes:

"I suffered from catarrh and hay fever for some time and owe my recovery entirely to Peruna. I did not have much faith in its efficacy when I first started to use it, but as I gradually grew better, I began to feel that perhaps I might get rid of these annoying troubles. I continued to use it for several months until I was cured. It is a great relief to me and I am therefore pleased to give my endorsement to Peruna, and trust that all who use it may have the same good results that I have had."—L. M. Babcock.

F. H. Siebert, 440 S. High Street, Columbus, Ohio, writes: "There is not any doubt of your Peruna curing my cough and hay fever, for which I can only thank you for your kindness. Peruna has cured me, it will cure others also."—F. H. Siebert.

Mr. J. Naschold, 426 West Mt. Pleasant avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., recommends Peruna for endemic catarrh (hay fever). He writes:

"I have used your treatment for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, as you diagnosed it. I have for years been a sufferer of this disease, especially during spring and summer time and never have received any relief until [illegible] cold weather set in.

"I took four bottles during February, March and April, when I not only felt greatly better, but am now cured. The attacks always returned about the middle of August and lasted until December. I have been entirely free from catarrh this autumn."—J. Naschold.

Hay fever is really acute catarrh excited by minute emanations from certain grasses, flowers, plants, smell, or dried vegetable substances. It is very sudden in its onset, and, without proper treatment, continues [illegible] the season changes or the patient goes to some favorable locality.

CAUSES OF [illegible]

It has all the symptoms of acute catarrh—sneezing, abundant exudations of mucus, and thickened, reddened mucous membranes, sometimes exciting spasmodic asthma.

Peruna is a specific for hay fever, and should be taken during the whole season of the exposure to the cause, for, as long as the exciting cause remains, no cure can be permanent. People who are unable to change their location during the season of hay fever will find Peruna a priceless benefit to them, as it meets every disagreeable symptom exactly. It is always advisable to begin the use of Peruna a week or two before the expected attack of hay fever in old cases, where the attack can be foretold, as this will often prevent entirely the return of the disease.

PIONEERS TO GATHER HERE

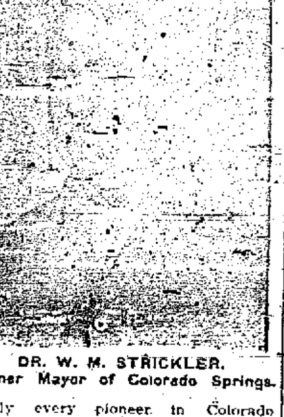

Outing Will Be Held in Stratton Park.

BIG PICNIC IS PLANNED

FOUNDERS OF TOWN AND ALL OLD-TIMERS OF EL PASO COUNTY INVITED TO JOIN IN THE CELEBRATION NEXT MONTH.

The pioneers of El Paso county will hold their annual gathering at Stratton park, September 15.

Plans are now being made for the reunion of those who came here when Colorado Springs was Fountain colony, way back in the 70s. Not only residents of this city but also the oldtimers who live on the ranches and in the mountains are expected to be present. Practically every pioneer in Colorado Springs, Colorado City and Manitou will certainly attend. The features of the reunion are not yet outlined in detail.

DR. W. M. STRICKLER.
Former Mayor of Colorado Springs.

Dr. Strickler Active.

Dr. W. M. Strickler, former mayor of this city, visited some of his pioneer friends of Colorado City and talked over the reunion. He is the oldest resident physician in the county.

It is likely that the El Paso County Pioneer association, which was started during the Quarto-Centennial celebration here in 1901, will be revived and made an active organization at the reunion now planned.

Among Those Interested.

Among the Colorado City pioneers who will be at the Stratton park gathering are the following:

Anthony Bott, Jacob Becker, Robert Finley, A. Z. Sheldon, William Love, Henry Templeton, Mrs. Flora Waycott, Jerry McCarthy, Judge Henry, H. D. L. Morse, Henry Coby, Horace Quinby, Jake R. Quinby, C. W. Kinsman, H. C. and W. M. Kinsman, Addison Copeland, Edward A. Brown, J. D. Faulkner, and M. E. Beach, all of Colorado City.

COLORED PEOPLE WILL CELEBRATE EMANCIPATION.

The colored people of El Paso county will celebrate Emancipation day September 22. The celebration will be held in this city and the program is now being outlined.

The chief feature of the day will be a big meeting in the Payne A. M. E. chapel, at which it is expected Congressmen Hogg and Brooks will deliver addresses, as will also Mr. W. B. Townsend, a prominent member of the race from Pueblo.

One lot of over 150 suits, worth up to $2.00, in double-breast, Norfolk Blouse and Sailor Norfolk effects. All good patterns and colors. School Sale Price, $1.75. Robbins on the Corner.

Amusements.

VICTOR LEE IS PLEASING.

Victor Lee, the magician, is pleasing audiences at the Opera house this week. Last evening he presented his pilot wheel, in which illusion all manner of things are made to appear on a revolving table in the presence of the audience.

The show is particularly attractive to the ladies and children and the matinee yesterday was well attended.

It is admitted by all who have seen the exhibition that it is the best ever given in the city for the money.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jeancon contribute the singing for the exhibition, and it is of the highest quality.

THE NEW EMPIRE.

Packed houses at the Empire theater seem to be the rule this week. The fact is, the show is so good it is too bad that anyone should miss it. This afternoon and tonight will mark a change in the acts for the balance of the week.

The Rousella will be seen in a new act.

Mr. John Murtha will be seen in new comicalities.

Miss Lane will sing "Two Little Boys From Home." The Schiller brothers will introduce new specialties.

Fairbun and Caines will introduce their new side-kicking sketch entitled "Irish Comedy." The bill will certainly be a hummer all the way through.

GAZETTE NIGHT TONIGHT.

Last night a large and well pleased audience visited the popular Novelty play-house. The bill was rendered in a fine manner. Noticeable among the audience were a large number of fashionably dressed ladies, who came in parties.

The Novelty is the old Temple theater, at the corner of Nevada avenue and Kiowa street, opposite the new city hall and is considered by the fire department to be one of the best equipped houses in this section of the state, there being 14 exits, in case of fire.

The house is properly seated and an audience of 2,000 people can be taken care of and not crowd them. The manager, Mr. Radcliffe, looking to the comfort of his patrons, supplies them with drinking water free of charge and has a porter to take care of any wheel or baby cab free of charge.

Next Friday a beautiful present will be given every lady attending the matinee. A special program has been arranged for children for Saturday afternoon.

Tonight is Gazette night, the carriers and newsboys having been invited by the management to attend in a body.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal: it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. 50c. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

BUSINESS MEN FOR PEABODY.

[illegible] were formed a club which should be the forerunner of scores of similar organizations throughout this state. It is the Peabody Law and Order league and is designed to give its indorsement to the course which the governor has pursued during the past two years and to do everything possible to secure his election for another term.

The formation of these clubs is in line with public sentiment in this state and will prove to the critics of Colorado that her business men and taxpayers are standing behind the governor in his endeavors to secure the safety of lives and property in this state. Its resolutions contain this important clause:

"We indorse his efforts to secure to employer and employe alike the right to the [illegible] enjoyment of property, or to work when, where and for whom he pleases and to enjoy the fruits of his business or labor in any lawful manner."

If every citizen and every organization in Colorado had recognized this vital truth there would have been no such thing as a labor trouble in this state. But when it is openly asserted that a man or a class of men have the right to another man's property, that "all wealth belongs to the producer thereof," then there comes an inevitable conflict; when any organization attempts to control freeborn American citizens and declare when and where they shall work then there must come into action a power to enforce obedience to the constitution and the laws of the state.

It is to secure to every man his rights under the law, his right to work and his right to the enjoyment of the fruits of his effort whether large or small, that Governor Peabody has labored. And in that laudable effort he should be protected and sustained by every citizen of the commonwealth.

D. B. HILL'S RENUNCIATION.

DAVID B. HILL has caused to be spread abroad the fact that he is done with politics at the end of this campaign. He takes particular occasion to say that he will not accept any office, either state or national, in the future.

The statement is remarkable in its character. Hill's name has been frequently mentioned as a possible secretary of state in the event of Judge Parker's success. Though that contingency is remote, yet it was unquestionably injuring Judge Parker's prospects, especially in the state of New York. In view of the fact that Hill knew that his advocacy of Judge Parker was throwing a wet blanket upon the chances of the nominee, the ex-governor takes himself out of the official possibilities.

It is a pitiable position for any man to take. He continues to support a man, knowing that his support is injurious. If Hill is a real friend of Judge Parker therefore, he will retire to Wolfert's Roost for the remainder of the campaign and neither be seen nor heard.

THE CRIPPLE CREEK SCHOOLS.

THE reopening of the Cripple Creek schools with a larger attendance than upon the opening week last year is a gratifying evidence of the increase in population of the Cripple Creek district. It is also an indication of the progress and prosperity of the region. For when business is good, when the miners are at work earning good pay, and conditions generally are at their best, then the schools are filled with pupils engaged in getting an education.

This large attendance also refutes the idea which is prevalent in a good many minds that there has been a loss in population in the district through the labor troubles of the past year. It is clear from the school figures, which are as good an indication as could be asked for, that for every person who has left the district one or more have come in. There is just as much business to be done, just as much money being earned and spent as during the palmiest days of the camp and that fact cannot be too widely disseminated.

The officers of the Fidelity Savings association of Denver are now in jail after indictment by the grand jury. If they can be kept there for a sufficient length of time to serve as a warning to others not to squander money committed to their care, it will serve a useful purpose though it will not return the money they have so recklessly dissipated.

[illegible] from the scene of activity from Port Arthur to Liao-yang will, at least, be a welcome relief to the man who writes the headlines for the newspapers. [illegible] a great strain to have the great Russian forces [illegible] day to day and yet never reach [illegible].

"Russia has arranged for another loan of $250,000,000 [illegible] bankers who [illegible] naturally demand, in view of the precariousness of Russia's position, a good rate of [illegible]. War times are great times for the man with the [illegible].

Senator Mason was never happier in an expression than when he declared that President Roosevelt had long been slated for the nomination and it was a slate that the politicians did not make and dared not break.

Denver is not likely to have an auditorium because the owners of realty seem to think that the entire appropriation should go to the site and none to the building.

Snowballing seems to be a favorite pastime these days on Pike's Peak. In Colorado Springs the children have every opportunity to "holler down the rainbarrel."

The Hon. Bill Devery seems to have been permanently retired from politics. He was [illegible] to carry.

Political Comment

ROOSEVELT FOUND IT.

In talking of [illegible] Davis, John Sharp Williams made an allusion to "the lost statute." Probably he meant the federal statute against trusts which Grover Cleveland lost, but which Mr. Roosevelt had no difficulty in finding and enforcing.—(Detroit Journal.

[illegible] IN CHICAGO.

In a canvass of the political preferences of 10,938 Chicagoans, 6,560 were for Roosevelt, 3,759 for Parker, 548 for Debs and 147 for Swallow. In this same group 498 persons will vote for Roosevelt, though usually giving their vote to the nominee of some other party.—(Chicago Tribune.

DEMOCRATS SHOULD GIVE UP HOPE.

What is the use of talking in sonorous tones from the stump or in the climax to editorials [illegible] Republican majority?" Vermont never gave 40,000 majority at a September election. Conditions have changed since four and eight years ago. Many Democrats who voted the Republican ticket, or who stayed away from the polls in disgust at Bryan and his financial heresies at two former elections, will line up in the fold again this year. If Vermont gives Bell and Stearns 25,000 majority, every Republican should be satisfied and if they have a margin of 20,000, the figures will be a hopeful augury of Republican success [illegible] election.—(Brattleboro Phoenix.

DEMOCRATS DISAGREE ON THEIR PLATFORM.

It is evident that nearly all the gold Democrats who are going back to the party at all were back before this campaign, and that a very great part of those who voted for McKinley in 1896 went back to the Democracy even in 1900. At the last two elections for governor the party lines were drawn about as squarely as before the Bryanization of the Democratic party.

Gold Democrats who had not returned to their party before this campaign may usually be counted out of that party permanently—or at least till it gets up a more trustworthy platform than that constructed at St. Louis and pronounced "admirable" by Judge Parker.—(New York Sun (Ind.).

Good Short Stories

A MATTER OF GEOGRAPHY.

Representative Heatwole of Minnesota was asked by a friend about a mutual acquaintance who lives in the congressman's district.

"Is he rich?" was one query.

"Well, that depends on geography," said Mr. Heatwole. "Out at home we consider him very [illegible]. He is worth about a million dollars. If he lived in New Jersey I suppose he would be thought fairly well-to-do, while if he lived in New York, folks would be dropping dollars in his hat."—(Collier's Weekly.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.

Felix Adler, notably witty in his lectures, has, too, a decided humorous vein in conversation. Here is one of the stories he tells on himself in casual talk: Two women who had attended Mr. Adler's lectures at Carnegie hall, New York, for many consecutive Sundays with unfailing regularity finally called on the lecturer one day at his home. "We wish to tell you in person, Mr. Adler," they said, "how much we have enjoyed your lectures. We wish to thank you for them. We have enjoyed them for months, and now we go back to our own church perfectly satisfied!"

LINCOLN PASSES.

Lincoln's humor armed him effectively against the importunate persons with whom, as the head of the nation, he was frequently thrown into contact.

During the civil war a gentleman asked him for a pass through the federal lines to Richmond.

"I should be happy to oblige you," said Lincoln, "if my passes were respected. But the fact is, within the last two years I have given passes to 250,000 men, and not one has got there yet."—(Youth's Companion.

SECOND-HAND SERMONS.

Cyrus Townsend Brady, when in the west as a young clergyman, met a negro Methodist circuit preacher whose district also covered a vast expanse of territory, and who, in consequence, was able to use a sermon a long time, so many different communities did he visit on his rounds. He had gone about three-fourths of the way 'round on one occasion when, coming from his church after the service, he encountered an old negro, who, hat in hand, approached and said:

"Dat's mighty fine sermon, sah, ob yoh's. Ah likes it ebery time Ah hear it. Seems we cross each other's track pretty of'n, sah, fo' today makes the seventh blest time Ahse heard ye' preach it. Ah'm a bit uv a preacher myss'f, sah; an' a wants ter say dat when yo' gits fru' wid dat sermon, Ah's ready ter buy it, sah. Ought ter last a long time yet, sah; it am such good staff. 'Deed, sah, Ahse willin' ter gib yo' fo' bits now, jes' to tin' th' bahs'in, sah."—(New York Times.

Ginger Snaps.

HE TRIED TO HAVE ONE.

Teacher—Now, then, Tommy, you have no good excuse for staying away from school yesterday.

Tommy—Well, it wasn't my fault.

Teacher—It wasn't?

Tommy—No ma'am. I done my best to think up one.—(Catholic Standard and Times.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB.

"You must visit our new country club," said the suburbanite; "the grounds are beautiful; the golf links superb. You won't find such scenery elsewhere. On entering the grounds the first thing that strikes your eye—"

"I know!" interrupted the city man; "a golf ball!"—(Philadelphia Press.

VANITY FAIR.

A leopardess said to her mate,
"We may be a little bit late
For the animal show,
But, really, you know,
I must see if my spots are on straight."
—Cleveland Leader.

A SURE SIGN.

"I guess Mrs. Olden doesn't feel as young as he did several months ago," remarked the observing man.

"Why do you think so?"

"He used to joke with that undertaker who lives near him, but he doesn't do it any more."—(Exchange.

A HEAVY BLOW.

"The sleeping [illegible] before 10 o'clock at night does one the most good," remarked the preacher.

"I guess you're right, parson," replied the young man; "I know how easy the sleep [illegible] in church always [illegible] the soundest."—(Yonkers Statesman.

A SPOILED FUNERAL.

A BIT OF REALISM.

MEN HAVE A CHANCE

Male Wise-Acres Submitted Household Articles to "Good Housekeeping."

It is probably [illegible] to declare that nine out of ten married men are secretly of the opinion that they could keep house better than their wives if they had the job and chose to put their whole minds to it. Every editor of a "Woman's Page" can testify to an esteemed clientele of masculine correspondents who write to her on topics ranging from the mysteries of casserole cookery to the proper laundering of silk negligee shirts. It was therefore with an astuteness born of a deep knowledge of human nature that the editor of Good Housekeeping conceived the idea of publishing a number written entirely by men. Did he have any difficulty in filling his pages? Not a bit. All sorts and conditions of men trod on each other's heels to get their contributions in. [illegible] their minds on how a home ought to be run, and they jumped at it. In the September number they swarm all over the house, putting things to rights, according to their own ideas. One man [illegible] up the pantry, re-arranging it [illegible] what he conceitedly calls shipshape. Another delivers a lecture on buying meat. Very likely his wife had previously declined to listen to it. Two pages of photographs of "home-like rooms" and an illustrated article on a "man's cottage" embody theories on household decoration long bottled up. But it remains for the contributors to a department of short paragraphs called "discoveries" to really express themselves. Here are favorite recipes from half the matinee idols on Broadway, expert views on making coffee, manipulating the chafing dish, and distributing the [illegible] doctors, lawyers, brokers and literary men, the question is, "What effect will a perusal of these really plausible pages have on a generation of men who have been feeling a little snubbed lately?"

Will they profess to perceive a plural meaning in the no-sex-in-intellect theory, and develop a stronger belief than ever in their capacity to be both heads of the family at once? In the words of the editor of the magazine, philosophizing along similar lines, "It is not safe to dogmatize."—(New York Evening Post.

COLORADO MICA THE BEST

The recent visit of Frank W. Jones, manufacturer and capitalist of Boston and Chicago, to the Colorado Promotion and Publicity committee's headquarters in Denver has developed a lively interest in Colorado mica. According to Mr. Jones, who is an expert in the commercial uses of this mineral, Colorado mica is the best in the world, being found in larger quantities here than elsewhere. It is absolutely free from foreign minerals, clear as plate glass, bright of polish and possessing great flexibility. Following his announcement regarding the universal and growing demand for mica and its fabulous value, come half a score of prospectors who have many mica claims in various sections of the state, notably in [illegible], Teller, Lincoln, Boulder and other counties.

BAG PIPERS TO PLAY FOR SCOTS

CALEDONIAN SOCIETY WILL HOLD OUTING ON LABOR DAY, AND CELEBRATE WITH FIELD SPORTS.

The annual picnic and Scottish games of the Caledonian society of Colorado Springs will take place on Monday, Labor Day, at Cascade.

The field sports include many interesting events such as throwing the hammer, tossing the caber, and putting the shot. The handsome silver cup presented by the society will be awarded to the champion.

There are also boys' and girls' and ladies' races, tug o' war, barre and sack races and a very complete program of games. Two Scottish bagpipers will be in attendance.

Cascade is an ideal spot for the picnic and the custom is to take lunch baskets and spend the day in the mountains.

Everyone is invited and the event is being looked forward to with pleasant anticipation.

FRUIT GROWERS WERE IMPRESSED

PARTY FROM TEXAS INVESTIGATING CONDITIONS AND METHODS ON WESTERN SLOPE SIGHTSEEING HERE.

A special car of Texas fruit growers arrived in Colorado Springs yesterday morning. There are 25 in the party, which set out from the Lone Star state to obtain information in regard to the shipping and handling of California fruits. They visited the various fruit centers of California and then started eastward. At Grand Junction they stopped over to investigate Colorado fruits, and were much impressed with the system of packing and handling fruits employed on the western slope. Members of the party are highly ... and ... marked.

The party is divided into committees of four, each of which studies some special phase. They are here sightseeing, and have gone up Pike's Peak, and taken in a number of drives through the various places of interest. The car leaves today at noon for St. Louis, from which place it returns home. ... Clarrage, industrial agent of the ... & G. railroad, and R. W. Thompson are in charge.

KILLS GERMS OF CATARRH

Hyomei Goes to the Root of the Disease and Makes Astonishing Cures.

Catarrh cannot be cured by the use of pills, liquid medicines and so-called system tonics. Under such treatment the germs of the disease will still live in the air passages and increase and multiply.

Hyomei is the only scientific and thorough way to cure catarrh. Killing the germs in the air passages, it enters the blood with the oxygen, destroys the microbes in the blood and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrhal poison.

Thousands of testimonials have been given as to the astonishing cures made by this remedy. J. S. Nugent, treasurer of the American Union Life Insurance Co., of New York city, writes: "Hyomei has completely cured my daughter of catarrh from which she has been suffering for years."

Probably the strongest evidence that can be offered as to the powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh is the fact that The Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co. will agree to refund the money if you say Hyomei has not cured you.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents.

Now is a good time to cure your catarrh.

CURE FOR HAY FEVER.

Hyomei is a positive cure for the sneezing, watering of the eyes, excessive ... at the nose, and intense burning of hay fever. It soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and gives quick and lasting relief.

Try the American House when you go to Denver. American and European plan. Best meals and rooms in the city. Rates very reasonable.

LYON APPOINTED TO FACULTY OF THE ENGINEERING SCHOOL

Columbia Man Selected to Fill the Vacancy at Colorado College—Additions Being Made to Equipment.

The only remaining vacancy in the faculty of the engineering school of Colorado college for the coming year has been filled by the appointment of Mr. George J. Lyon, C. E., to the work in civil engineering.

Mr. Lyon is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and of the School of Engineering of Columbia university. He has had four years practical experience in various kinds of engineering, notably in the engineering departments of the Union Pacific, New York Central and the New York, Ontario and Western railroads.

Mr. Fred. Crabtree, as announced some weeks ago, has been appointed to the chair of mining and metallurgy. Mr. Howard Moore ... drafting and machine design; Mr. Geo. Carvollois is superintendent of the mechanical laboratories. The instruction in electrical engineering will be given by Dr. J. C. Shedd; that in mathematics by Dr. Florian Cajori.

The equipment of the engineering school is being constantly increased. In the department of electrical engineering measuring instruments along the line of ammeter, voltmeter and wattmeter, manufactured by the General Electric company and by the Western Electric company, have been ordered; also several expensive pieces of apparatus of English make, designed by Lord Kelvin and Mr. Hopkinson. Colorado college owns its own electric plant, (designed on the three-wire system), three large dynamos having been already installed, and to aid in the instruction in applied electrical magnetism, three generators and three motors of different types have been ordered.

For the junior engineering laboratory a large 100,000 pound testing machine has been ordered for use in determining ... and metals, and plans are being matured for a cement laboratory. In the shops, among the large machines to be installed before long will be a "shaper" for use in iron work. The number of tools and of drawing tables is being increased to meet the demand of the increased number of students.

WIFE KILLED ON HAND CAR; HUSBAND SUES FOR DAMAGES

A suit for $5,000 damages was filed in the district court yesterday, the Rock Island railway being made defendant, with L. Roberts suing.

Roberts alleges that his wife was killed by a train belonging to the defendant company near Elsmer station, east of Colorado Springs. He states that his wife was engaged to run a boarding house at that point to accommodate Rock Island employes and that she had to secure her provisions at Falcon, and had not the ordinary railway means of transportation from Falcon to Elsmer for the provisions necessary to keep the boarding house, and that she was compelled to enter into an agreement with the parties, foreman to carry her to and from ... that on September 20, 1903, Mrs. Roberts and the foreman and Wade Roberts started on a trip to Falcon; that after proceeding a few miles they came to a curve and Wade Roberts went ahead to see if the track was clear and saw a westbound train coming towards him, that he signaled the engineer with a red flag used by the road for the purpose, but the engineer paid no attention to it and ran upon the handcar killing Mrs. Roberts.

The plaintiff charges negligence on the part of the defendant engineer as the cause of his wife's death and so seeks damages.

CURTIS HAS DAY OF SIGHTSEEING

NOTED JOURNALIST AND PARTY WERE GUESTS OF MR. SIMPSON AT MANITOU—SEVERAL SIDE TRIPS PLANNED.

Mr. William E. Curtis, of the Chicago Record-Herald, the noted journalist and author, who has just completed a tour of one year around the world, with Mrs. Curtis and Miss Curtis, enjoyed a delightful drive yesterday over the Mesa road and through the Garden of the Gods to Manitou. Mr. Curtis with his wife and daughter were the guests during the day of Mr. W. H. Simpson, general advertising manager of the Santa Fe railroad. Mr. Simpson came on from Chicago to meet Mr. Curtis and his party. The other guests of the Santa Fe during the day were Mr. Henry Russell Wray, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Mr. D. C. MacWatters, general passenger and ticket agent of the Short Line, Col. George Nox McCain, Mr. C. E. Wood and Mr. C. C. Hoyt, the Colorado Springs representative of the Santa Fe system.

The party left the Antlers hotel at 10:30 in two tourists' wagons. They were driven over the Mesa road and through the Garden of the Gods, stops being made at various points of interest, the entire party being photographed at the balanced rock. Lunch was taken at the Cliff house in Manitou, after which the visitors returned to this city.

Mr. Curtis, as stated in the Gazette yesterday, expects to remain in Colorado Springs for a week or ten days, after which he will visit Pueblo, Rocky Ford, and other points of interest in the Arkansas valley, going from thence to St. Louis and Chicago.

WAS FINED FOR FAST DRIVING

W. J. SEWERS COLLIDES WITH BUGGY ON COLORADO AVENUE AND IS CALLED UPON TO EXPLAIN.

W. J. Sewers, who while driving on Colorado avenue Tuesday evening, collided with another buggy in which Mrs. J. D. Gillette was driving, was before Police Judge Hammond yesterday and was fined $10 and costs. The fine was suspended on Sewer's promise that he would pay the costs and also pay for the damaged buggy.

Charles Lewis, tailor, was assessed $10 and costs for intoxication yesterday morning. He was picked up the night before near the Antlers hotel where he had fallen to the ground due to the inability of his limbs to carry him further.

The arguments in the Popejoy-Stratton estate case were concluded yesterday and Judge Cunningham took the matter under advisement.

In the county court yesterday, a suit for divorce was filed by Lyda Ettinger against Frank Ettinger. Non-support and ... are given as the grounds for the suit.

PETERSON GETS CONTRACT TO CONSTRUCT SIDEWALKS

... Peterson was yesterday awarded the contract for the cement sidewalks around the new city hall grounds.

The bids on this, the last city hall contract, were opened yesterday by Alderman Verner and the public grounds and buildings committee and the contract was awarded to the low bidder. Mr. Peterson's bid was $1,612.19, while the next lowest was $191 higher than this. There were eight bids altogether. Work on the sidewalk is to start at once.

... inches wide; brown, red, green, navy blue and black are the colors. You'll not find a better one at 60c yard.

New Fall Silks

We have ... thus far only a few styles in the new silks but several of these are such choice patterns that we believe that your attention should be called to them. Especially to several which contain only suit-pattern lengths. Priced at $1.00 and $1.25 yard.

WHAT IS UNDER THE COVER?

Have you ever opened the mattress you sleep on, to see what it was made of and what condition it is in? Probably not, as it is often the one neglected article in the house, although so important as to health, comfort and cleanliness. Perhaps it requires renovation (making over) by a skilled workman? If so, telephone your order and I will send for it.

Possibly you ought to have a new mattress. If you are using a so-called "wool" mattress it should be burned up, for all wool shoddy is made from old clothes, horse blankets or old waste material. If you buy a mattress let me show you the famous Ostermoor (all sizes in stock) and other high grade mattresses at lowest prices possible to secure.

WEATHER TO BLAME SAYS MR. SIMPSON

ADVERTISING MANAGER OF THE SANTA FE ADVANCES A NEW REASON FOR DECREASED TOURIST TRAVEL.

W. H. Simpson, general advertising manager of the Santa Fe, who has been a guest at the Alamo hotel for the past few days, is here in connection with the visit of William E. Curtis, the noted journalist, and will probably make arrangements with him today to visit the Arkansas valley and Pueblo on his return to St. Louis.

In speaking of the tourist travel this summer, Mr. Simpson thinks that the decrease has been due more to the cool weather in the east than to the St. Louis exposition. The Santa Fe is doing a large amount of advertising of Colorado and Mr. Simpson says will continue to do so.

AUGUST BREAKS THE RECORD FOR YEAR

Cripple Creek District Production Amounted to 61,940 Tons of Total Value of $1,790,620. September Will Be Larger Still.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 31.—The production for the month of August reaches the handsome figure of $1,790,620, with a tonnage the heaviest since the inauguration of the strike a year ago this month, amounting to 61,940 tons.

The month of August eclipses all other months of the year and is accounted for largely from that fact that a larger number of leases are now working than for some time past. All the old producers, with a possible exception of two or three, are maintaining their usual output, and coupled with the fact that more ore was cyanided during the month than in any like period during the camp's history.

Ever since the strike was inaugurated a year ago August 10 the output of the camp has been steadily rising, until today it is practically normal. Notwithstanding this, mine and mill owners predict today that September will show a much larger output than August. This can be accounted for in several ways. In particular, that the Golden Cycle and Independence mines will help materially during September, the former resuming operations at the present time and the latter getting down to producing ore in a systematic manner.

Big Gain Over July.

The production of August shows an increase over July both in tonnage and valuation. In July, ... tons were shipped, having a total valuation of $1,716,600. August figures show an increase of over 10,000 tons, with an increase in valuation of $74,520. With this month's figures, the grand total of the first eight months of 1904, amounts to $14,022,420.

The following table gives the individual treatments made by the mills and smelters as obtained from the companies for the month:

Mills.	Tons.	Value.	Total.
Smelters	10,000	$60	$600,000
U. S. R. & R. Co.	20,000	24	480,000
Portland mill	8,000	32	256,000
Telluride mill	6,000	35	210,000
Dorcas mill	2,800	35	98,000
Economic mill	2,600	34	88,400
Homestake, cyan.	6,610	4	26,440
Florence, cyan.	2,170	6	13,020
Wild Horse	1,860	6	11,160
Sioux Falls	2,000	4	8,000
Totals	61,940		$1,790,620

Details of Production.

A few of the properties that helped to make up this month's tonnage were as follows: For the month of August the Vindicator sent out 1,500 tons, with values of from two to five ounces; Dillon property produced 500 tons, with an average of $30 to the ton; the Lee ... mine, on Beacon hill, 500 tons of $40 ore; C. K. & N. 1,500 tons of $25 ore; Old Gold, 900 tons of $40 ore; El Paso, 1,200 tons of $70 ore; W. P. H., 850 tons of $40 ore.

During the month of August Harrison and Seaver, operating under lease the famous W. P. H., belonging to the United Gold Mines company, shipped a total of 28 car loads of ore, returning values of anywhere from two to five ounces to the ton, each car containing about 30 tons of ore, making the total output in the neighborhood of $50,000 gross for the month.

The remarkable part of the production from this property is that a ton of waste is not picked out of the ore that is hoisted in a week's time, and when it is taken into consideration that the lessees are breaking ore of 25 feet in width above the 300-foot level, it is remarkable.

Mr. Harrison today stated that they would increase the output next month to nearly double the tonnage made for the month just ended.

To Treat Independence Dump.

After repeated discouraging experiments made on the dumps of the Stratton's Independence, in reference to its successful treatment, it is understood that the large pile of rock can be treated at a profit. An expert from London, England, who has been making the latest tests, estimates that there are 750,000 tons of rock in the dump which will yield a profit of $3.50 a ton. If this be true, it means that over $2,000,000 will be realized from the treatment of this enormous pile of rock.

It is learned that the expert is now in London submitting his plans to the directors and if an agreement can be reached, a mill capable of treating 1,000 tons of ore per day, and costing in the neighborhood of $200,000 will be erected.

HILL'S SPEECH PUNCTURED

William Allen White Shows Absurdity of the Attack on Republicans of New York State.

... Point, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Former Senator David B. Hill was the orator of the day at the Broome county fair this afternoon and attracted a great crowd.

Mr. Hill said that the Democratic ... was one of the ... that question ... [illegible] ... by the ... of Judge Parker's ... [illegible] ... and the new platform ... [illegible]

... Rooseveltism is ... characteristics. The president through himself and his late private secretary, manager and director ... [illegible] ... Mr. Hill sharply criticised Mr. Roosevelt's method of employing magazine writers to give out his views and especially attacked William Allen White's article "How Roosevelt Uncovered the Postal Frauds." He ... "When it (the ...) ... the president's friend and political sponsor, State Senator Green of Binghamton, N. Y., and when he was about to be indicted for crookedness, the two senators from New York, and every prominent Republican in the state begged for mercy and then threatened President Roosevelt for allowing Bristow to indict Green.

"If true," Mr. Hill went on, "this is a most serious accusation. It virtually accuses our two Republican United States senators and also every prominent Republican in the state with a crime. But it uplifts Roosevelt and he apparently delights to be exalted at the expense of others."

"Who," the speaker inquired, "but the president himself could have furnished him this exclusive information which he now discloses to the public? It is believed that the charge is utterly groundless; that its publication was intended as a spectacular and sensational performance, and that it was concocted especially to aid the president in the present contest regardless of its damaging effect upon others. Being false in one essential particular, the whole article should be discredited."

WHITE'S REPLY.

Emporia, Kan., Aug. 31.—William Allen White, referring to the statement in Ex-Senator Hill's speech, said today:

"The article in question was not inspired at the White house. The president furnished none of the facts. It was well known before the indictment against Green was issued that he was getting political influence to prevent the indictment. His friends were not at all secret about the matter. They boasted that they would head Bristow off. They claimed that Green was innocent, and so represented the case to the New York Republican politicians who interceded in his behalf. It is not discreditable to any man, be he senator or governor, or politician, to try to help a man whom he sincerely believes to be innocent. The men who tried to help Green did so in the best of faith and after the evidence was presented to them in the Bristow report the effort in Green's behalf immediately stopped. If Senator Hill can get any comfort out of the fact that New York politicians of high and low degree in the Republican party refused summarily to help a man whom further they see is honestly indicted for a real offense, Mr. Hill is welcome to his comfort."

TO RE-ELECT SHERIFF BELL

MINERS OF THE CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT ARE MAKING PREPARATIONS TO FORM A NON-PARTISAN ORGANIZATION.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 31.—Representative miners of the Cripple Creek district are now making preparations for the forming of a non-partisan organization for the purpose of electing Edward Bell to succeed himself as sheriff of Teller county.

The movement is in its infancy as yet, but the indorsement it is receiving indicates that the organization will have a membership of at least 1,000 to start with. Mr. J. Brown, who is one of the leading spirits in the movement, is satisfied that the miners of the district can and will elect the sheriff this fall. Mr. Brown said today to your representative: "We have tried Ed Bell and know that he will protect the miners when we are down the holes during the night. We feel that our families are safe while we are away from them. No more Sheriff Robertson or his like for us. That is all I can say as we are not organized yet."

FEDERAL COURT IS ASKED TO INTERVENE

Application for Restraining Order Prohibiting Cripple Creek Citizens From Interfering With Interstate Mercantile Co.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 31.—The federal courts will be asked to interfere in the labor troubles at Cripple Creek and to protect the deported men on their return to the district. This is the substance of action that was taken in the United States circuit court of the Eighth judicial district of Utah.

The Interstate Mercantile company appears as complainant and gives notice that on Monday, September 5, they will ask for a restraining order prohibiting some 20 Teller county citizens and other residents of the district from interfering in any way with the plaintiff or its agents in its conducting of business in the Cripple Creek district.

The applications based upon a bill of complaints and affidavits of Frank Hangs, J. C. Cole, T. H. Parfet, Frank Akins, H. M. Helmerdinger, J. W. Higgins and Stephen Leahy, ex-Governor Thomas acts as their attorney.

It is directed to Albert E. Carlton, E. A. Colburn, C. C. Hamlin, G. S. Hoag, T. E. McClelland, E. C. Newcomb, N. Franklin, R. T. Russell, J. Sharpe, J. Dalzell, H. T. Dahl, W. N. Brainbridge, S. D. Crump, H. L. Shepherd, J. Kirby, Z. L. Funk, A. B. Shilling, F. M. Reardon, W. E. Dingman, S. A. Phipps, C. Fitch, K. C. Sterling, D. McCarthy, A. T. Holman, F. M. Woods, J. B. Cunningham, Thomas Scanlon, Frank Beagle, Charles Huggins, W. Carruthers, W. E. Driscoll, F. May, H. Waters, H. McGarry, L. E. Smith, A. H. Moore, F. D. French, E. Coplin, P. DeWild, Edward Bell, John Doe, Richard Roe, the Citizens alliance of Cripple Creek and the Mine Owners association of the county of Teller.

Hearing on Monday.

The notice reads in part that application will be made to the Hon. John A. Marshall, judge of the United States district court for the district of Utah, and assigned for the district of Colorado at chambers in Denver, state of Colorado, that a restraining order against each of the defendants, their agents, attorneys and employes to restrain and enjoin them from interfering in any manner with the above named plaintiff, or its agents, in or about the prosecution of the complainant's business affairs, taking possession of its premises, goods or merchandise, or in or about the purchase of supplies and the delivery of same and to desist from in any manner banishing or deporting complainants from Teller county.

The notice was received in this city this afternoon and a United States marshal made service on each of the defendants that could be located. The defendants in turn referred the matter to Attorney S. B. Crump, who will appear as their attorney before the court next Monday.

Denmark Wants to Know.

The first international complications to arise from the deportations from the district is with Denmark. That government has written to the state department of this country concerning one James Beck, who resided at Goldfield and was deported with one of the first batches. The government has referred the matter to Colorado officials and they have referred it here and it is now being investigated.

ANOTHER MAN DEPORTED

Party of Dozen Men Took G. N. Hooten From His Home at Anaconda Last Night.

Special to the Gazette.

Anaconda, Aug. 31.—At 6:30 o'clock tonight twelve men quietly visited the home of G. N. Hooten, of this city, and escorted him over the hills toward Canon City, this being the last heard of him.

Hooten was released from the county jail about ten days ago on bonds, being charged with complicity in the Victor rioting cases of June 6.

As soon as the deportation was learned by Sheriff Bell, which was some fifteen minutes later, he secured saddle horses for three, and accompanied by two of his deputies he went ... After riding the hills and roads for nearly four hours, they returned to Cripple Creek without seeing or hearing of the deportee or deporters.

Your representative happened to be in the sheriff's office at 4 o'clock tonight when Mrs. Hooten came in, and, telling the sheriff that she had learned that her husband was to be taken off tonight, asked for protection for their home. The sheriff immediately offered protection and instructed two deputies in the office to go, stay the woman back and spend the night there, to see that no violence took place. Mrs. Hooten claimed to have to do some shopping before leaving, so she arranged to be accompanied at 6:30 by the two officers. While at the depot in Cripple Creek waiting for the train to pull out one of her neighbors came off the train that had just come in and notified her that her husband had just been taken out. While in the sheriff's office your representative heard Mrs. Hooten state that she had been confiscating bills for the W. F. of M. which had been paid by them, also that the federation was supporting her at the present time. It was also learned that when Mr. Hooten returned he returned with arms furnished to him by the W. F. of M. in Denver.

At 10 o'clock Sheriff Bell was seen in Cripple Creek and said he could not get any clew as to who the men were that took Hooten out.

NO BONDS OFFERED FOR MR. LELAND

FEELING AGAINST HIM IS SO STRONG THAT HE IS BELIEVED TO BE SAFER IN JAIL THAN ELSEWHERE.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 31.—No bonds were offered for Rev. Mr. Leland and Messrs. Parker and Jencks today and there seems some doubt as to whether the two latter will gain their temporary liberty by this means in the near future. However, an attempt is being made in the Leland case by his attorney, L. J. McFeeley, to secure bondsmen.

Sheriff Bell anticipates the offering of bail for the belligerent preacher before tomorrow evening, but there is a popularly expressed doubt as to the wisdom of Leland's accepting of bond, as there is a strong feeling against him which might result in violence in the event of his release.

SUICIDE OF PROMINENT MICHIGAN POLITICIAN.

Detroit, Aug. 31.—James B. Hawley, a prominent politician, committed suicide last night by taking strychnine. The deed is attributed to remorse for having shot and killed his brother on April 18, 1902. At that time James B. Hawley was exonerated on the ground of self-defense.

DISASTROUS FOREST FIRES RAGING IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

St. Johns, N. F., Aug. 31.—Forest fires have destroyed the hamlet of Little Bay and 300 families are homeless. Two men have been killed. The steamer Prospero has embarked the women and children.

The men are fighting the flames in an effort to prevent the fires from covering a wider area. The government is providing food, shelter and other assistance to the destitute.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

IN TELLER COUNTY IS SET FOR SATURDAY, SEPT. 10—MEETING OF THE COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 31.—A well attended and very enthusiastic meeting was held tonight by the Republican county central committee. More than two-thirds of the entire county central committee were present.

Chairman James Owen called the meeting to order and Frank Sheafor was elected temporary secretary in the absence of C. A. Gillette. The first business of importance transacted was the setting of the dates of the county convention and primaries. The county convention is called for Cripple Creek at 10 a. m., Saturday, September 10. The primaries in cities of the second class will be held between the hours of 2 and 7 p. m. on Thursday, September 8, precinct primaries will be held at times selected by precinct committeemen.

The apportionment of delegates will be one to every 40 votes or major fraction thereof cast for Governor Peabody at the last election.

The proxies held by nonresidents of such precincts as were not represented were ruled by the chair as not eligible to vote, according to the rules of the state committee.

Several short addresses were made by prominent Republicans, everything being harmonious.

WHY CHINESE BOATS HAVE EYES

Curious Legend That Explains the Painted Eye on the Bow of Every Kind of Craft Built by the Celestials.

(By J. H. Hollander.)

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—The broad seacoast of China has been far-famed for her intrepid navigators. The beautiful collection of models of sea and river-going craft of every description as an evidence of Chinese skill in the art of navigation is well worthy of more than a casual glance when visiting the Chinese section in the Liberal Arts palace at the World's fair.

The Chinese have records of their navigation beyond their coasts dating more than 2,000 years ago, even beyond the times of Cheops and the Pharaohs. The Chinese have no steam vessels of their own particular design, and all of their boats are propelled by either oars, sculls or sails.

The one great peculiarity of the Chinese vessel, be it of whatever type, is that it must have an eye painted or carved on either side of the bow of the boat. This is done in accordance with an old Chinese tradition that some over-intrepid mariners set sail on a bamboo raft for an apparently nearby shore, when a typhoon or cyclone drove the craft far out of their course, and the crew were cast high and dry on an unknown shore. At a loss what to do, they prayed to the god of the sea, who appeared to them in a vision and told them that they should [illegible] their craft, embark again and point their eyes toward the rising sun and set sail.

They were to proceed in an easterly direction until nightfall, at which time they were to leave the navigation of their vessel to the god of the sea, who would furnish the boat with a pair of eyes wherewith to see the way. This was all done, and at night the sailors beheld a pair of glowing eyes, one on either side of their craft, and they reached their destination in safety the following day.

The overjoyed crew sent a memorial to the emperor relating the facts of their [illegible] voyage, and the emperor at that time issued an imperial decree ordering that all vessels of every description should have eyes either painted or carved on their bows in order that the ships might "see" their way. Hence the Chinaman's response when asked to explain the reason for the painted eyes on the bows of vessels:

"No got eye; no can see."

Models of all classes of boats from the miniature "sampan" or wherry to a full-fledged [illegible] junk, either for [illegible] or freighting purposes, can be seen. The "sampan" is propelled by a scull from the stern and worked with a peculiar side-like twist that both serves to propel and steer the boat at the same time. In the larger classes of sampans oars are used in a similar way to that on ordinary row-boats. There are larger lighters with immense single sculls, some of which are over 40 feet in length and which are worked singly by as many as 8 men at a time. These large sculls work on a sort of pivot, fastened to the taffrail of the boat and the inboard end is gauged to a certain motion by being held in place by a rattan or rawhide strap cleated to the deck of the vessel, allowing the scull so much play while in action, and at the same time [illegible] the scull itself from getting beyond the control of the scullers.

War junks with their stink-pot "masttops," their antiquated cannon and blunderbusses; stately and ponderous looking merchantmen; smaller-sized coasters; all the way down to fishing smacks, cargo boats, flower boats, houseboats, duck boats, large sampans or passenger boats and catamarans are all represented. In the city of Canton, China, over one-half of the people live in boats and in Hongkong about one-third comprise the floating population of the entire city.

RIGHTS OF STATE EXECUTIVE IN TIME OF INSURRECTION

Masterly Address Made by Hon. Joel F. Vaile

AT MEETING OF THE BAR

DECLARES THAT LAW LAID DOWN BY SUPREME COURT IS NECESSARY TO PUBLIC WELFARE

Summarized, the conclusions of Mr. Vaile in his address before the Bar association yesterday were as follows:

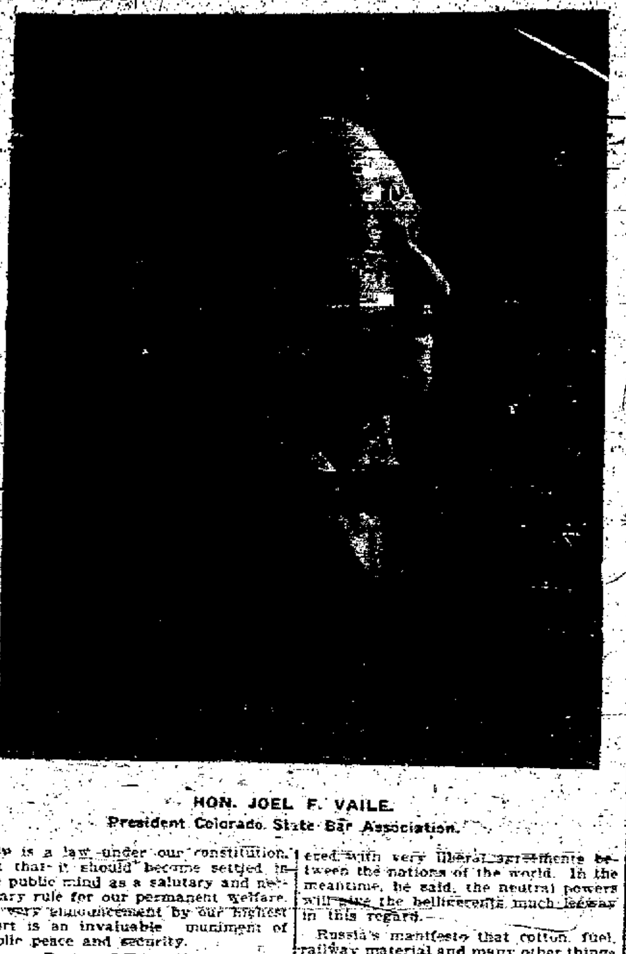

The right of the executive to arrest and detain a prisoner during an insurrection is not only the law but should become settled in the public mind as a salutary and necessary rule for the good of the commonwealth.

Judges may refuse the writ of habeas corpus in such cases.

Where a writ is so issued, judges may refuse to make it permanent, when it is shown that a state of insurrection exists.

The executive must be the judge of the circumstances.

The people have the relief if the exercises of the right is abused.

HON. JOEL F. VAILE.
President Colorado State Bar Association.

The opening address by Hon. Joel F. Vaile of Denver, president of the association, on "The Legal Relations Existing Between the Executive and the Judiciary in Times of Insurrection," was the opening feature of the bar meeting yesterday. It was a strong endorsement of the position enunciated by the state supreme court in the Moyer case and the right of the chief executive to take and detain a prisoner during times of insurrection.

Mr. Vaile first reviewed the Colorado labor troubles from the standpoint of the local judges whose writs were ignored by the military force. He then continued:

"Later an original application was made in the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Charles H. Moyer. The writ was there given full legal efficacy. The court issued the writ upon application. Pursuant to the command of the writ, the body of the prisoner was produced, and without military force accompanying him. Return was made showing the grounds for the arrest and detention. The court considered the facts stated in this return upon a demurrer to their sufficiency, and held, after hearing, that the arrest and detention were legal and for that reason remanded the prisoner. In this case, therefore, the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, but full effect was given to it. It is with these facts as a preface that we proceed to discuss our main theme."

Discussion of Question.

"The question then before us is: Shall the late decision of our supreme court, to the effect that the executive when using military force to suppress an insurrection, may arrest an insurrectionist and detain him until the insurrection is suppressed, stand as the permanent rule in this commonwealth, or should it be changed, if necessary, by constitutional amendment?"

After an exhaustive and eloquent recital of precedents and authorities and after viewing the case from all standpoints, Mr. Vaile said:

"Our national and local history, the trend of judicial decisions and the necessities arising in times of domestic turbulence lead me to the conclusion that the time when ordinary processes of law are for the moment suspended, and executive action is to be determined solely by the nature and extent of the justifying or excusing peril, commences at the very time of beginning the use of military force to suppress an insurrection.

"I should therefore say that the rule laid down by our supreme court not only is a law under our constitution, but that it should become settled in the public mind as a salutary and necessary rule for our permanent welfare. Its very enunciation by our highest court is an invaluable muniment of public peace and security.

Power of Executive.

"We may, however, consistently supplement these conclusions with the further suggestions, as affecting the state executive, that in cases of civil strife the executive power of arrest and detention can be used only for prevention, and not for punishment, that it does not extend beyond the vicinity where insurrection exists, nor to portions of the state remote from military operations, nor after the resistance is over, or the suppression of the insurrection accomplished; that it does not extend to persons not connected with the insurrection, nor (even with the scene) can it extend to the person or property of citizens against whom no probable cause exists which may justify it, provided, however, that the executive must, for the time being, be the judge of facts showing probable cause, or probable guilt."

The address was heartily applauded and his statement, quoted above, in support of the supreme court decision in the Moyer case, was the occasion of an outburst of applause that interrupted the speaker.

Russo-Japanese War.

Ernest Knaebel, of Denver, delivered the second address of the afternoon session on the subject: "Some Questions of International Law Arising Out of the Russo-Japanese War."

Mr. Knaebel gave an exhaustive review of the principal events of the present war, dwelling upon the new conditions which have been developed in the war. He spoke of the use of wireless telegraph by the belligerents and neutrals as a matter of international law, which he expected would soon be covered with very liberal agreements between the nations of the world. In the meantime, he said, the neutral powers will give the belligerents much leeway in this regard.

Russia's manifesto that cotton, fuel, railway material and many other things susceptible of use in peace and war indifferently are unconditionally contraband of war, he declared one of the most important points raised in the war. He also touched upon the question of Russia's destruction of the British ship Knight Commander, as another interesting point upon which no opinion can be passed at this time. This was a neutral ship carrying a neutral cargo. "It is easy to see," he said, "that the right to destroy in any case should be exercised with the utmost caution.

A Grave Feature.

The question of interference by Russia with neutral mail steamers, he contended, is one of the grave international features. In this connection he quoted from the French and from the late President McKinley's proclamation, the latter as follows: "The right of search is to be exercised with strict regard for the rights of neutrals, and the voyages of mail steamers are not to be interfered with except on the clearest grounds of suspicion of a violation of law in respect of contraband or blockade."

Speaking for himself on this point, Mr. Knaebel said:

"While it is to be assumed that the right to search the mails on regular mail ships will be generally exercised in the most considerate manner, and then only upon urgent reasons, it is scarcely to be expected that it will soon be relinquished entirely, since to grant immunity to such mails would be in effect to exempt nearly all hostile dispatches from danger of interception."

Mr. Knaebel, in conclusion, expressed the belief that all frictional incidents affecting neutrals are almost certain to be amicably settled.

MINT IS MAKING MONEY TO ORDER

BUSY DAYS AT THE PLACE WHERE COINING IS NO GAME, FILLING SOME FOREIGN CONTRACTS.

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—Although no silver dollars have been coined in the mint since May 31, when the silver bullion in stock was exhausted, the money mill has never had any larger orders to be filled than it has now.

At present the engravers are working on the die for an order for three or four million pieces of Panama money. This order will be filled within two months.

An order for 250,000 gold dollars for the Lewis and Clark exposition, to be held in Portland, Ore., next year, has just been received. These dollars will be like the St. Louis dollars, which are now selling at $3 each, and will be coined from Oregon gold.

Another order for 250,000 pieces of Porto Rican money is also being filled.

The employes are now working nearly $4,000,000 worth of silver into subsidiary coin.

More than $15,000,000 worth of gold is being refined. It will be ready to be stamped into coin by the first of October. For the first time in its existence the mint will manufacture this year its own bronze blanks, which are used in stamping pennies. Formerly they were manufactured in New England.

NO MONEY TO PAY PRINTERS

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN TIED UP FOR WANT OF MONEY.—G. O. P. TEXT BOOK.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—The issuing of the Republican campaign text book has chased a cold chill along the spine of the Democracy. Especially is the Democratic congressional campaign committee worried over the appearance of this little red volume, so replete with Republican truths, tersely told. Chairman Cowherd of this committee has had enough worries lately, with only a [illegible] from [illegible] Democratic leaders all over the country, for an expenditure of millions of documents to circulate among the voters, and no money to pay the printer. And now comes more trouble, in the shape of the Republican text book, which contains arguments, backed by facts, sufficient to convince the most skeptical voter.

Byron W. Holt, a statistician who can produce figures to show anything that is desired to demonstrate, has been [illegible] "[illegible]" into the Republican text book. He has been told to dig up something to prove that "it isn't true," or if it is true, the Republicans did not do it. Mr. Holt is busy and the result of his efforts will be given to the public, providing that in the meantime Chairman Cowherd secures a few contributions, enough to pay for printing the deductions arrived at by the official statistician.

Meanwhile the efforts of the committee to capture the "40 doubtful" congressional districts is [illegible]. The [illegible] of war are not forthcoming and Chairman Cowherd is fearful of getting himself into the same kind of hole as James F. Kerr of Pennsylvania did when he was at the head of the [illegible] office. Kerr made [illegible] sufficient to pay for them would come in. But he failed to get the money and eventually had to pay about $10,000 out of his own pocket.

The congressional committee has figured that there are 40 doubtful congressional districts in which they have a chance to win and thus change the complexion of the house of representatives. A few weeks ago they started in to corral all of these districts and were merrily at work when they suddenly discovered that there was a shortage in the funds, and then it dawned upon them that the calculations that there would be plenty of money this year for the Democrats were false. Hence the congressional committee is waiting for the national committee to extend the first aid to the injured, and if it is not forthcoming there will be little done toward capturing that "doubtful 40."

MURPHY EXPECTS PARKER TO LOSE

ADMITS PRIVATELY THAT THE DEMOCRATS WILL LOSE NEW YORK STATE BY 30,000, AGREEING WITH ODELL'S ESTIMATE.

Special to the Gazette.

New York, Aug. 31.—Already the little apprehension that followed Judge Parker's telegram to the Democratic convention at St. Louis has passed away, and the Republican campaigners believe, not meaning by that guess, but believe on the basis of actual canvasses thus far made, that the state of New York will give a Republican plurality of not less than 30,000. Of course, this estimate is made upon the assumption that during the campaign there will occur no unfortunate mistakes or unhappy accidents like that one of the Blaine campaign, in 1884. The canvass of that year showed that Blaine had the state by about twenty thousand and those figures would probably have been the record of the ballot box had Blaine followed his own inclinations and kept away from New York state. He was misled into making his campaign trip to New York as Henry Clay was led into writing the Alabama letter forty years earlier.

Smiling Taggart.

Mr. Taggart, the chairman of the Democratic National committee, has won many friends here by a most companionable personality. His whole conduct would justify anyone in believing that he was a disciple of the faith cure or scientist body of believers. He is always cheerful, a true philosopher, but some think that he has gone [illegible] too far, lead to the suspicion that he may be a political campaigner of the same school and capacity as was the unfortunate Senator Carter, who attempted to manage President Harrison's campaign. As for instance, Mr. Taggart's delightful philosophy, perfect composure, his apparent sense of the remoteness and unimportance of local politics all manifested when he is spoken to with reference to the [illegible] Mr. Murphy in Tammany and Mr. McCarren of Brooklyn, [illegible] that he [illegible] stand that this may be the danger point in the Democratic campaign.

Murphy's Idea.

Mr. Murphy expects to get out the full Democratic vote, meaning by that the organization vote. He hopes that the city of New York will give to the Parker electors a Democratic vote as large as that received by Mr. Coler when a candidate for governor two years ago. [illegible] here, however, Democrats in that part of the country [illegible] Mr. Coler's plurality in the city of New York in 1902 was 122,000, but his Democratic vote was considerably less than that received by candidates of other years, and [illegible] in which the Republican [illegible] was [illegible]. His great plurality was due [illegible] to Republican abstention. The Republican vote fell off 40,000 in 1902, not going to the Democratic candidate. If Mr. Murphy gets out the full Democratic vote he will be able to say in case Judge Parker be defeated "it was not my fault or that of Tammany, but I always said that Parker could not carry this state."

The prevailing feeling in Tammany organization and the absolute conviction of Mr. Murphy is that Judge Parker will not carry New York state, but that the Democratic ticket will be in a minority by not less than 30,000. The coincidence between this estimate of the Tammany leaders and that of the Republican leaders is probably the most interesting feature of the campaign at this time.

CONTINENTAL PARTY.

Nominates H. H. Howard, of Illinois, for President and George Shibley for Vice President.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—For president of the United States Charles H. H. Howard, of Illinois, for vice president, Geo. H. Shibley, of Washington, D. C.

The above ticket was nominated tonight by the convention of the Continental National party, the state of Wisconsin, West Virginia and Illinois being represented.

A long platform touching upon the tariff, money, government ownership of means of transportation, and taxes, was adopted, and a committee of nine members were appointed to take charge of the campaign, which it was declared would be of an aggressive character. The candidate for president is a brother of General O. O. Howard.

PLANNING FOR BRANCH RAILROADS IN COLORADO

Parson, Kan., Aug. 31.—Following a meeting here today of the directors of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway the following statement was given out:

"The sole business of the meeting was the ratification and approval of the acquisition of Oklahoma railroads by the M. K. & T. company, the authorization of a first and refunding mortgage to secure an issue of $40,000,000 in bonds; to make provision for acquisition for branch of extension railroads in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Arkansas, Nebraska, Colorado and New Mexico to provide for the acquisition of terminals at Kansas City, St. Louis and other places along the road and for the acquisition of additional rolling stock, and equipment. More than four-fifths of all outstanding stock was represented at the meeting and voting on all questions was unanimous."

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 31.—Democratic primary elections were held throughout South Carolina for state and county officers and members of congress. Success in the primaries is insurance in the general election, as the Republicans make no nominations except in some districts for congress. The state officers nominated without opposition today were: Governor, H. C. Heyward; lieutenant governor, John T. Sloan; secretary of state, J. T. Gant; attorney general, U. X. Gunter, Jr.; state treasurer, R. H. Jennings; comptroller general, A. W. Jones; adjutant general, A. D. Frost.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

Fourth Wisconsin district—Peter J. Somers, Democrat.

Sixth Iowa district—S. A. Brewster, Democrat.

MANY DEPREDATIONS BY EXCURSION PICNICKERS.

Esopus, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Judge Parker's candidacy has caused his place at Rosemount to be visited by picnic parties in increasing numbers. Some of the parties come from long distances. They enter the grounds, usually without introduction or permission, make themselves at home with the utmost freedom, and leave the place littered with picnic leavings. One party recently stripped several of the apple trees in the orchard and committed other depredations. Judge Parker has been most cordial in his treatment to all visitors, but the picnickers are causing much annoyance.

MORMONS IN MEXICO INTEND TO IRRIGATE

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 31.—Reports have reached here telling of considerable suffering among the Mormon colonists in Chihuahua, Mexico, this year on account of the prevailing drought. Only half and third crops have been produced. The colonists have planned to irrigate next year and engage in the sugar beet industry.

VERTICAL LINES AS APPLIED IN STATE

Leadville Lawyer Tells Why Present Law Should Not Be Amended---Many Obstacles in the Way.

The address delivered at the meeting of the Bar association by John A. Ewing, of Leadville, on "Should Our Mining Laws Be So Modified as to Confine the Grantee of a Lode Mining Claim Within Vertical Lines?" was an address of great value on account of the importance of mining laws in this state. After discussing the question from all sides, Mr. Ewing took the position that a change in the existing laws would [illegible] but few. He said in part:

"The present act was evidently drawn and passed by congress with the idea that all veins were substantially perpendicular in their downward course into the earth, and that the prospector would have little difficulty in locating his claim along the course of the vein, and take by such location a section of the vein as a whole, regardless of the depth to which it might go; the vein, in contemplation of congress, being the principal thing, and the surface ground merely incidental. It is evident that it was contemplated that there might and likely would be other veins having their tops or apices within a claim so located, and in order to provide for that contingency the locator is given all other veins or lodes which have their tops or apices within the boundaries of the claim, but only such other veins and the principal vein are granted. The locator is forbidden to enter upon the surface of a claim owned or possessed by another for any purpose.

In Precipitous District.

"Many veins have been discovered, located and worked in the mining states and territories where the provisions of the statute are easily applied, and notably in the precipitous districts in the San Juan country in Colorado, for the reason that the veins go down almost perpendicularly. It is difficult, where such conditions exist, to see how the statute could be amended to improve the condition of the miner.

"Since the passage of the act, it has been found that where a great portion of the mines have been discovered on the public domain the conditions contemplated by congress do not exist: first, in those districts where what are known as contact veins are found, second, in those districts where many small and irregular fissure or gash veins are found in the same or different formations, and which cross each other and are intermixed to some extent, and the walls of which are not well defined.

"It is impossible to tell the true condition, or determine who is the actual owner of the mineral in many cases until an amount of development has been made sufficient to exhaust the vein, or until the full extent of the ore and vein shall have become known, which very rarely happens until many years after mining has been prosecuted at enormous expense.

"According to the statute as it is written, no title whatever can be obtained to a vein within the boundaries of a claim located unless its top or apex is within the claim, and conditions frequently arise where no adjoining owner ever locates his claim so that he can follow the same within the boundaries of the originally located claim, hence under the statute as it stands, with conditions existing as they do in a majority of mining sections where the ground has all been located and patented, a great deal of the mineral has not been conveyed by the government and the legal title still remains in it. In order to avoid that condition, the courts have held that under the common law grant of the patent the grantee becomes the owner of the soil and rock within his boundaries carried vertically downward, and that he thereby becomes the owner of any lode, which, though it have an apex, such apex is not located upon, or is surveyed in such form as not to give any extra lateral rights to the owner of such exterior location. But this is adding to the grant given by the statute, and is not sustained by a literal construction thereof.

Obstacles to Amendment.

"The greatest difficulty that is encountered in considering an amendment to the statute in question is the fact that thousands of mining claims have been patented, and indeed practically all the mineral land in the known mining [illegible] States patents or by location, and the rights thereto are vested; which no amendment or change of the law could in any wise affect. There will undoubtedly be for many years to come much litigation concerning the rights acquired by such titles.

"If the law were now amended so as to confine the grantee of a mining claim within the vertical boundaries of his claim, new locations made in the vicinity of old ones would necessarily be subject to such vested rights. That is, a claim now patented or located has a vested interest in all veins having their tops or apices within the boundaries, and the new location in the vicinity would necessarily be taken subject to the rights of an adjoining locator or patentee under the old law and would be denied rights which the locator under the old law would have. If the locator under such new law would locate upon a vein which dips under an old location, neither the owner of the old location nor the owner of the new would be entitled to that portion of the lode.

"Where ideal conditions exist for a location, to change the law would be a hardship, yet in new mining sections where new locations would be made under a law which would confine the grantee within his boundaries, it might be an advantage, if the claim were of the maximum size now allowed by law. This could be accomplished by repealing the provision of the [illegible] which permits the width of a claim to be diminished by local regulations. With greater width, greater depth would be obtained before the vein would depart from the side-line. The right could also be granted by congress permitting locations to be made upon discoveries at any depth below the surface of or any part of the claim in order that the vein when departing from the side-lines could be obtained by the miner and another location of 600 feet in width acquired.

Benefits of Change.

"In new mining sections, if any shall be hereafter found, where conditions are otherwise than ideal, such a change would have great advantages over the present law. Twenty and two-thirds acres of ground could be obtained by one location, and being confined within their vertical boundaries, absolute security of title to the ore found therein would be had. The many uncertainties as to who is the owner of a body of ore when disclosed underneath the surface would be eliminated. The boundary lines between claims would be easily established and fixed with certainty, and each owner protected in his rights when he had established the title to the surface as certainly and securely as the owner of agricultural land is protected. Such a law in the beginning would have operated greatly to the advantage of the miner and the public in the majority of the older and larger mining camps in the mining regions, and brought about a more rapid development, with a great saving of expense to the public and the individual.

"As many of the questions which arise under the law as it now exists have been settled definitely by the courts, and must be settled sooner or later because of existing rights, and as it is problematical as to whether or not any great amount of entirely new mining territory will be found, it would appear that a modification of the law would tend only to confuse, rather than to simplify; and all things considered, such change should not be made.

INDECISION MARKED COURSE OF MARKET

WEAKNESS BECAME MORE PRONOUNCED AT THE CLOSE AND GREAT MAJORITY OF ACTIVE ISSUES MADE NET LOSSES

New York, Aug. 31.—The stock market today bore the usual ante-holiday aspects. Price movements were rather irregular and business was in light volume. Those traders who were not really bearish [illegible] disposed to reduce their commitments for a variety of reasons. These included the heaviness of internationals in London, operations dwindling to nominal proportions preceding definite news from the great conflict from the far east. Reactionary tendency of Missouri Pacific, Missouri, Kansas & Texas, Atchison and Colorado Southern properties, whose earnings are likely to be adversely affected by certain damage to the corn crop, also helped to check the upward course of the list. In some quarters, however, the weakness of Missouri Pacific and other Gould stocks as well as Colorado & Southern was attributed to more important reasons. The wheat situation was again watched with unusual interest and the unsettled condition of the cotton market was viewed with disfavor. Nevertheless, stocks were not offered with any considerable freedom, and there was an absence of the [illegible] United States Steel shares and Amalgamated Copper led the industrial group, London being again reported a purchaser of Steel preferred. Indecision marked the course of the market all through the early session. The list became more unsettled in the trading, many of the active issues touching the lowest prices of the day. The weakness became more pronounced at the close and a great majority of the active issues made net losses. United States Steel made a one point gain.

Old United States government registered 4s advanced ½, and the same issue coupons ⅛, while the new 4s declined ⅛ on call.

Business in railroad and speculative issues was unusually heavy. Total sales, par value, $6,745,000.

ABSCESS.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss. writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg. One day I went to [illegible] drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo). He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world." ABSCESSES, with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc. Sold by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

A PANORAMA 440 MILES LONG.

From the observation car on the New York Central a living panorama 440 miles long may be seen. This includes the Genesee, Black River and Mohawk Valleys and 142 miles of the Hudson River, including the foothills of the Adirondack mountains; the capitol at Albany; the Catskill mountains; the Palisades of the Hudson and the New York Central's magnificent approach to the metropolis—this being the only Trunk Line whose trains enter the city of New York.

Baby Mine Every mother feels a great dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of the great pain and danger of maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's severest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," says many who have used it. $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. Book containing valuable information of interest to all women, will be sent to any address free upon application to BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

GIDDINGS BROS. GIDDINGS BROS.

This store demonstrates its usefulness to the buying public more and more every day. Our ideals of yesterday are but stepping stones to greater realizations tomorrow. Our growth depends not alone upon the whims of trade, but is firmly rooted as a giant oak, because it is founded upon honest, straightforward method and sterling quality.

Continual Arrivals of Fall and Winter

Wearing Apparel

New conceptions pour in by every express. Our buyers have spent several weeks among the best garment makers known to the world, and their selections have been the choicest that Madame Fashion could produce. Now, that they are arriving, we want you to visit this store every day.

This entire page, filled with type and pictures, could not fully describe the magnificence that our display will present when complete.

Mannish Effects in New Coats

The latest arrivals are the Automobile or Tourist Coats and the long coats of mixtures with the large shoulder cape. There are plain colors or mixtures, loose back with or without the belt. 28-in or three-quarter lengths, also rain coats in full lengths. Every garment has a mannish tailored elegance that is stunning.

New Suede Leather Vests

They have just arrived. There are greens, grays or leather color, and are for street, driving and automobile wear. Entirely new and very popular for fall and winter wear. Be sure to see them.

New Fall Waists

The new waists for fall are ... and many in exclusive styles. The patterns are neat and they are very prettily trimmed.

New Automobile Suits

My, such mannish effects! Among our showing are the corduroy automobile suits, light or dark tan, with collar, cuffs and belt of leather. By all means see them.

Many Other New Suits

are now on display here. Plain colors or mixtures. The elaborate effects have the new onion color trimming down the front with fancy buttons and Persian braid. There are browns, black, tan, blue, etc. If you are wanting a very pretty, yet inexpensive new fall suit, or an elaborate garment, see our line before you decide definitely where you intend to buy.

New Line of Percales

We have just opened a special line of new percales for fall. They are the kind that sell the world over for 15c yard; our price, 12 1-2c.

New Arrivals in Children's Coats

The new goods received yesterday consisted chiefly of children's Fall and Winter coats. There are all sizes and all styles, and remember this very important point, every price is very fair.
